2017 March Artist Tour "Artists at Work"

March 18, 10 AM - 5 PM; March 19, 12 PM - 5 PM.

This tour is a FREE, self-guided and open to the public. Enjoy (2) days exploring the architecturally rich neighborhood of Historic Kenwood, while you view the exhibits of 19 artists at 15 different stops. You will experience a variety of work ranging from emerging artists to internationally recognized professionals and will include work by ceramicists, sculptors, jewelers, photographers, illustrators, and fine art painters. This year's theme, "Artists at Work," allows patrons and visitors to engage with artists, and enjoy live demos throughout the two-day tour. Learn about the creative process and what steps an artist takes to bring their ideas from concept to completion. Treat yourself to a new piece for your collection or pick up gifts for friends and family!
