Dr. Martin Luther King: Footprints Through Florida

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. transformed America with his message of universal love, unity and compassion. But few know of his path through Florida. This documentary explores Dr. King’s history-changing moments in Tallahassee, St. Augustine, and in Miami, where he penned his “I Have a Dream” speech. Interviews with Dr. King’s fellow civil rights activists include: A.D. Moore, former chair of C.O.R.E. (Congress of Racial Equality); community organizer Enid Pinkney; Dr. Marvin Dunn, author of Black Miami in the Twentieth Century; Shirley Johnson, NAACP youth advisor; and John and Patricia Due, longtime “freedom fighters.” Airs Sunday, January 15, at 7 p.m.
