Dick Jacobs: The Global Naturalist

Library Atrium Photography Exhibit January 24th - February 24th

Photographer Dick Jacobs has traveled the world documenting the beauty of exotic regions such as Namibia, Egypt, Jordan, and India. In this exhibition, Dick focuses his lens on the disappearing landscape of our own state of Florida, visually recording birds, plants, trees and coastal plains that are in danger of extinction.

His blog, www.theglobalnaturalist.com, is a thoughtful look into the dangers of environmental carelessness, and visitors to the exhibition are invited to respond to his musings on the subject.
