Navigating Health Care Insurance for Artists, Arts & Cultural Organizations and Creative Businesses

The St. Petersburg Alliance will present an informative panel at the bi-monthly St. Pete Arts meeting.

Joseph Papich, Vice Chair of the Arts Alliance, presented an overview at the Regional Arts Summit on Oct. 25, and the response and requests for more detailed information was huge. Open to all, this expanded free session will present how the Affordable Health Care Act will affect you or your creative business.

Power2Give Coming

Power2give.org was created by the Arts & Science Council in Charlotte, NC to expand the support of the local cultural sector. Since its launch in 2011, the site has grown and is now operational in 18 communities nationwide. The site has raised nearly $4M in support, posting over 1,400 projects and receiving more than 13,500 donations for 501(c)3 arts & cultural organizations.

With support from Bank of America, the Arts Council of Hillsborough County will serve as the host site for Pinellas, Sarasota and Hillsborough. The St. Petersburg Arts Alliance will host the Pinellas information session with Power2give leadership on November 20 in the morning. Time and place to be announced soon. Check our website for more information. www.stpeteartsalliance.com
