In the past two fiscal years (2001-2002 and 2002-2003), the library has ordered 278 new titles in support of the mass communications curriculum with a total expenditure from the book budget of $11,661. This represents a 3% outlay of the total budget for monographs.

Expenditures for monographs, periodicals, and newspapers relating to journalism subjects total $0 for the preceding two fiscal years. This breaks down to

Periodicals	Dollar Totals 2002-2003	Dollar Totals 2001-2002

Microforms
Newspapers

Microfilm
Newspaper Indexes
Print	$3,950	$3,781
Monographs	$7,616	$4,045

Expenditures for journalism and mass communications subjects increased 53% between the 2002 and 2003 fiscal years, showing the increased emphasis of this department on the St. Petersburg Campus.

POYNTER JAMESON FOUNDATION

In addition to regular library funds, the mass communications program may also use the earnings on 1% of the original endowment of the Poynter Jameson endowed professorship to purchase library materials. Annual earnings for this USF Foundation fund total approximately $600 per year. The above figures were spent for print resources for the Poynter Library collection.

ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

The library also contributes to the cost of the electronic databases, books, and periodicals that are cooperatively purchased by the USF Library System. Specific electronic sources of interest to Mass Communications students and faculty are listed in sections #7,8,&9 below. Total resources spent for all USF electronic resources totaled $1,316,203 in 2000/01, although cost breakouts for individual products are unavailable since many products are consortial purchases or “bundled” resources. Poynter Library contributes approximately 7.5% of the cost for these subscriptions.
