The Life of Paul Robeson with Stogie Kenyatta 'The World is My Home'

Kenyatta - classically trained at The Afro American Studio in Harlem, the Henry St. Settlement and Al Fann Theatrical Ensemble - said the show is part of a personal quest to introduce young people to Paul Robeson, who gained wide fame in the mid 1900s as a concert singer and recording artist, stage and film actor, athlete, scholar and Civil Rights activist.

The solo show, also written by Kenyatta, honors Robeson, who said during World War II that 'nations go to war' but 'arts and culture unite us.' He spent his life striving to unite people through his widely acknowledged talent. He was the first actor to portray Othello with an otherwise all-white cast and his rendition of 'Ol' Man River' in the musical 'Showboat' was said to have set the standard for the performance of that song.

Thursday, February 16, 2012 from 10:30 am to 2:30 pm at Harbor Hall (HBR) Community Room
