We Shall Remain

On Sunday evenings, WUSF TV presents We Shall Remain, a five-part PBS “American Experience” mini-series exploring the essential role of indigenous peoples in American history. This powerful and compelling narrative of hope, courage and survival spans three centuries and a vast continent. Narrator Benjamin Bratt investigates pivotal historical moments from a Native American point of view. These five inspiring and, at times, heartbreaking segments reveal the ingenuity and resilience of America’s original inhabitants. Gathering these stories together was no easy task. This documentary represents an unprecedented collaboration between filmmakers, advisors, historians and community leaders. The story they tell is richer and more surprising than the one told in many of our history books. Parts 1 and 2 air on July 12 at 8 p.m.; parts 3 and 4 on July 19 at 8 p.m.; and part 5 on July 26 at 8 p.m.

Congratulations to WUSF on receiving the 2009 Community Impact Award for Engagement from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting!

The award recognizes WUSF's production of
The Amendments 2008: A Florida Matters Special Edition, which gave us all a comprehensive look at the issues surrounding the proposed amendments on the November ballot.

So congratulations to WUSF... and thank you!

I'm proud to celebrate this award with you.
