JOSEPH P. REMINGTON, PH. M.

No. 1832 PINE STREET

PHILADELPHIA, January 15, 1914.

Miss Kate V. Jackson,
Tampa Civic Association,
Tampa, Florida.

Dear Miss Jackson,

I know that you are interested in foods. I have just received the enclosed advertising matter. It bears out my statement made before the women's organization in Tampa at the Tampa Bay Hotel.

I have sometimes thought that I offended some delicate and supersensitive women by alluding to things which some women regard as "taboo", but I hope that you agree with me that matters relating to food and the ordinary affairs of life should be spoken of frankly, but always in the proper spirit. It is the spirit that counts most; it should be serious but no necessarily uncheerful. Dr. Wiley's work in stopping the bad habit of floating oysters will save thousands of lives; yet how few people in the United States know this!

Wishing you success in your efforts to elevate humanity,

I remain

Very sincerely yours,

(Enclosure).
