

For Love of Liberty: The Story of America's Black Patriots

This compelling, two-part series documents the heroic and often forgotten exploits of African-American soldiers throughout American history. The documentary is hosted by Halle Berry, narrated by Avery Brooks, features an introduction by Colin Powell and showcases an all-star cast of celebrity voices. Using an innovative mix of letters, diaries, journalistic accounts, rare photographs, location footage and reenactments, the series documents the sacrifice and service of African-Americans, from the Revolutionary War to the current struggle against worldwide terrorism. According to executive producer Louis Gossett, Jr., "For Love of Liberty will forever change perceptions about the vital role African-Americans have played during the entire course of U.S. military history." Airs Sunday, February 7 and 14, 9-11 p.m.

FEBRUARY TV HIGHLIGHTS

Ideas in Action with Jim Glassman is a new, half-hour weekly series featuring a panel of experts discussing before a live audience, the trends, conditions and ideas behind the week's headlines. The panelists comprise a diverse group of economists, historians, anthropologists, political scientists, demographers, and social philosophers. Airs Sundays, 8:30 a.m., beginning February 7.

American Masters "Sam Cooke: Crossing Over" With rare footage and candid interviews, this documentary explores Sam Cooke's all-too-short career. Cooke became the first African-American artist to top both the R&B and pop charts with his 1957 hit, "You Send Me." Cooke feared alienating his gospel fans by embracing "the devil's music." Instead, he transformed rock and roll music. Airs Saturday, February 13, at 8 p.m.

Nature "The Best of Nature—25 Years" The brilliant cinematographers of Nature have given viewers an intimate glimpse of the fight for survival in the wild. This program, hosted by Lynn Sherr, includes scenes from "The Urban Elephant," "Cloud: Wild Stallion of the Rockies," "Triumph of Life," "Kingdom of the Ice Bear," "Wisdom of the Wild," "Condition Black," and "Deep Jungle." Airs Thursday, February 25, at 8 p.m.

Tavis Smiley's programming has a great appeal, especially to young professionals ... his commentaries are direct, to the point, and many times voice the views that we have.

I'm Candace Cusseaux, and WUSF is my source for The Tavis Smiley Show because of his direct commentary style.
