NOT A STUDY AID

The more leisurely side of the USF Library is indicated by the patio where relaxed surroundings make hitting the books a peaceful chore. If thorough study is desired, mixed company should not gather since the area induces a personality study for young couples. This area, and the lobbies of the building, afford the only chatting areas in the quietest of USF buildings.

20,000 BOOKS A YEAR

USF Library Grows

By SIEGFRIED CROPPER

The University of South Florida Library in the first two years of its existence has acquired among other notable books dealing with the early history of Florida a copy of, "Breves Narratio Eorum Quae In Florida" by Jacobo Le Moyne, a first edition printed in 1591.

Another interesting book in the library collection is a facsimile copy of the "Codex Lindisfarnensis" which was written by Bishop Eadfrith, circa 700, and was one of the treasures of the Benedictine Priory of Lindisfarne, Ireland. The library copy shows the beautiful colors of the hand-illuminated manuscript.

An interesting example of the bookbinder's art is a volume showing a "double edge" painting on the front edges of the book. Depending on the way the edges of the book are turned, two different paintings are displayed.

These books are all in the "Special Collections Room" on the first floor of the library. Statistics Out

The library at present has over 50,000 volumes and is acquiring books at the rate of 20,000 a year. It has a capacity to hold 250,000 books and last year 30,598 withdrawals were made from the library; 13,019 withdrawals were made from the Reserve Section.

Between Oct. 1, 1961 and July 1, 1962 the library was used by 283,227 persons. The library has 45 full time and 45 part time employees; 20 of the full time employees are professional librarians. The library has books in at least 12 different languages.

The director of the library, Elliott Hardaway, states one of the problems the library has encountered is the mutilation of books by readers who remove one example of a rare edition of an encyclopedia which had 20 pages removed. To counter this problem the library has installed a machine which will reproduce copies of a page of a book for a fee of five cents per page.

The library has microfilm facilities and receives daily microfilm copies of the Tampa Tribune and the New York Times for its permanent files. It subscribes to 1,500 different periodicals and papers.

Hardaway states that he hopes the library will be able in the near future, to acquire a collection of Babylonian clay tablets.

As regards its physical layout, the first floor of the library contains the Art Gallery, Special Collections Room, Reserve Reading Room, Current book section and the Lounge. The second floor houses the Periodical Reading Room and the Reference Room with the Card Catalogues. The greater number of the library books are located on the third floor.

Students graduating with honors will be decorated with special insignia. No graduation fee will be charged. Caps and gowns will be available in the book store. Each candidate will purchase his own commencement invitation, also available in the book store.

Upon interview, Allen commented that with many of the charter class finishing degree requirements early and others taking more time, the charter class completions will be extended over a long period. December, 1963 is a central point between the early and the late graduations.

Archery Club Tournament

An archery tournament, sponsored by the USF archery club, will be held Wednesday, Oct. 31, during the free hour on the university's archery range. The round will be a modified USF round and will be modified on an individual handicap system.

Grebstein's Case Under Consideration By Faculty

AAUP and Students Urge Swift Repeal

By SARAH CALDWELL

President John S. Allen's suspension of Dr. Sheldon N. Grebstein, assistant professor of English, Friday, Oct. 19, has brought about repercussions equaled only by President Kennedy's recent speech to the nation.

AAUP Speaks

The USF chapter of the American Association of University Professors saw the suspension as "an encroachment on their own future responsibility as teachers, scholars, and disseminators of the truth."

EDITORIAL

Something of Value

Another of our professors has been spirited away amid rumors and vague threats. We do not believe it is necessary to rehash the issues at stake. We are writing for a university readership, who understand as we do the concept of freedom and responsibility. Both sides were presented quite adequately last spring and again early this fall.

No, we do not fear that the professors, administration and the better students at this university will change sides. We don't believe the professors will begin teaching differently, begin avoiding controversy of any kind. And we do not believe that any serious student is going to be fooled. He will not confine his reading to books which do not challenge him to test his thinking on democracy, religion, philosophy or sex.

The fear we have is of a different kind. We are afraid that these professors and students will leave. They do not have to stay. A good professor can find a job in one of hundreds of private colleges. A good student need not stay here for financial reasons. He can go anywhere in the country on a scholarship or a reasonable loan.

Those of us in the charter student body, faculty and administration, and even those who came later, came because we felt that there was a chance to establish a state school that could rival the best in the country.

The enthusiasm was here two years ago at the convocation, and right up until last spring. Since then it has received blow after blow. Now President Allen is in the position of choosing between alienating the board of control or the faculty. Alienate the board of control you say? And after he is fired who will replace him?

What we fear most is desertion by our best faculty. We can only hope they will feel enough loyalty to stay with the ship until we plug up the holes. If they don't, if they leave for attractive job offers in the north, USF will never recover from the broken morale they will leave behind. They must remember their enthusiasm of two years ago. They came looking for "something of value." It is still here. It will leave with them and the students they take with them.

Letter to Editor

From the beginning of this semester until the time this article was written there has been one complaint common to all the residents of Beta Hall. "Where are our proctor desks?"

Now an extremely popular question at floor meetings and bus sessions in the halls.

For the information of staff members and non-resident students, proctors in the male residence halls at USF have the following duties:

A. To be on duty from 7 to 10 p.m. on week nights.

B. To receive incoming telephone calls and deliver messages.

C. To aid the resident assistant in maintaining silence.

D. To help maintain the efficiency of the "courtesy card" system.

E. To study when no other duty confronts him (under normal conditions a proctor may occasionally study two of the three hours).

The proctor station traditionally is located in the center of the floor, next to the telephone. Each student serves proctor duty for his section as his name appears, on a rotation basis.

Anyone who has not roomed the floors of Beta Hall during proctor hours has a mild surprise awaiting him. He will find a proctor stationed at each of 10 different sections in Beta Hall. If the past is any indication of the future, he will find the proctors in many varied postures and temperaments. They will either be standing up, sitting on the floor, lying on the

Although no official reason for the suspension had been given, the AAUP said that the action came as a result of a reprinted literary criticism of "beat" writers, which was distributed in the professor's advanced writing class.

Monkey Trial Author

Grebstein is the author of "Monkey Trial," a documentary study of the Scopes trial in Tennessee. This was a test case regarding the right of a teacher to discuss Darwin's theory of evolution in the classroom. "Monkey Trial" was required reading for the functional English course at USF in the fall of 1960.

Both the AAUP and student groups came out with statements urging a swift repeal.

Censorship

The AAUP said, "We feel that if this situation is allowed to go unchallenged, every member of the teaching faculty might be subjected to biased, immature, or irresponsible censorship."

Statements in support of Grebstein were distributed to campus organizations functioning through the USF Student Association, and should be forthcoming this week.

Within His Rights

Concerning his case, Dr. Grebstein stated, "I am totally convinced that I acted wholly within my rights as a college professor."

A five-man investigating committee appointed by President John S. Allen will review the charges against Grebstein, and will recommend either dismissal or dropping of the charges.

FOR CENTURIES

It has been the custom of civilized people to buy presents at Christmas time for those they love.

That reminds us of those who have passed on to the next realm of life. For them there is only one thing we can buy—a monument or marker for the sacred spot where they rest.

If that is properly done, it is permanent.

It is not too early to place orders now for work to be done before Christmas.

They cannot be passed over the counter like a pair of shoes. Each one must possess its own individuality.

may we serve you?

Eight State Prisons House 8,000 Convicts

By ART BEAUCHAMP
Times Staff Writer

Florida taxpayers are picking up the tab for housing, feeding, clothing and providing medical care for 8,000 prisoners who are incarcerated in eight state prisons scattered about the state.

Thousands of others are given the same treatment in hundreds of city and county jails.

The state Division of Corrections' latest report lists 7,987 prisoners, a drop of 12 from the July total.

The prison population consists of 4,144 white males, 51.88 per cent of the total.

Negro males are in second place with 3,490, or 43.74 per cent of the total.

There are 133 white women and six white infants in state prisons, comprising 1.75 per cent of the total.

Negro females total 208 and Negro infants total 2, comprising 2.63 per cent of the total.

White prisoners of both sexes total 4,283 for 53.63 per cent of the total.

Negro prisoners of both sexes total 3,704 for 46.37 per cent of the total.

The state's prisoners are located in Apalachee Correctional Institution, Chattahoochee, Avon Park, Lovell (mostly women); Raiford, the

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place. And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months! In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics, or other agents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body. And now, this new substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

THE NATION'S WEATHER TODAY

South Gets Touch of Winter

By Associated Press
Gusty northerly winds fanned cold air, rain and snow from the north central region eastward and into sections of the South today.

Light snow fell as far southward as parts of Tennessee and Kentucky where temperatures dropped to the 30s. Readings were in the 40s from Alabama through the Carolinas and northern Florida. Some of the chill was felt in southern Florida as the mercury dropped into the 50s.

The coldest weather was in the north central region, with temperatures dropped into the teens in parts of Minnesota and the Dakotas.

One wet belt extended from Illinois eastward through most areas to central Pennsylvania. Snow flurries or light snow hit many sections, with a mixture of rain and snow in some sections. Two inches of fresh snow was reported in South Bend, Ind., and three inches fell in Marquette, Mich. Light snow powdered areas in upstate New York and in Maine.

In the South, light rain or snow extended along a cold front in southern Tennessee and Arkansas. Strong northerly winds swept the cold air from the Carolinas to Texas. Freeze warnings have been included as far south as Arkansas and Northern Mississippi for tonight.

In the West, rain splashed

the Pacific Northwest southward into northern California, with heaviest falls along coastal areas.

Yesterday's temperatures ranged from near freezing in the north central region to the 90s in the southwest desert region. The 95 reading in Yuma, Ariz., was a record for Nov. 4.

Packers, Giants Rolling; Will 'Skins Win Another?

By United Press International
The New York Giants chorus a loud "nuts!" to the gag that no team wants to win the Eastern Division of the National Football League because they'd have to meet the Green Bay Packers in the Championship playoff.

The Giants played what coach Al Sherman described as a "flat" game Sunday, but they battled from behind three times in the final period to edge the St. Louis Cardinals, 31-28, and take over first place in the Eastern Division from the Washington Redskins.

The free-wheeling Dallas Cowboys made the Giants' ascent possible when they upset the Redskins, 38-10, before the largest crowd ever to watch a sports event in the Nation's Capital.

Meanwhile, the Packers, once again playing without injured Paul Hornung, disposed of another Western Division challenger by drubbing the Chicago Bears, 38-7.

In other games, the Detroit Lions remained two games behind the Packers by beating the Los Angeles Rams, 12-3; the Baltimore Colts upset the San Francisco Forty Niners, 22-3; the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 39-31, and the Cleveland Browns played a 14-14 tie with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Y. A. Tittle, who experienced a wretched afternoon following last Sunday's record-tying 7-touchdown performance, completed a 20-yard touchdown pass to full-back Alex Webster with 3:30 left to play for the touchdown that beat the stubborn Cardinals.

The Giants' comeback triumph offset a superb passing offensive by the Cards' second-year quarterback, Charlie Johnson, and end Sonny Randle.

Johnson completed 26 of 40 passes for 365 yards. He threw for two touchdowns, set up another with his passes and snaked over for a fourth. Randle caught 16 passes — the second largest haul in N.F.L. history — for gains totaling 256 yards.

Jim Taylor bucked over for four touchdowns in the Packers' easy win over the hapless Bears, who lost four fumbles and had three passes intercepted. The Packers, incidentally, now have stolen 24 enemy passes. Taylor gained 124 yards in 25 carries while Hornung sat out his third straight game.

The Cowboys' offense, which has scored more points and gained more yardage than any other in the N.F.L., ground down the Redskins

San Diego On Selling Block

SAN DIEGO (AP) — A San Diego syndicate is negotiating with hotel heir Barron Hilton to buy the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

Hilton confirmed reports of the talks yesterday but said nothing has been completed. He said he would like to sell the team and keep a minority interest.

Members of the syndicate include Banker C. Arnold Smith, owner of the San Diego Padres baseball team; A. B. Polinsky, bottling company owner; Dr. Al Anderson, dentist; sportsman Robert Breitbard; Jay Grill, executive of radio station KOGO; Dr. Charles Franklin, physician; Felice Fornaca, bread company owner, and Dave Carfield, businessman.

before a crowd of 49,888 at Washington. Quarterbacks Eddie Lebaron and Don Meredith each passed for two touchdowns.

Earl Morrall, who took over the Lions' quarterback job because Milt Plum was ineffective during a scoreless first half, teamed with flanker Pat Studstill to beat the Rams. After Danny Villanueva's 18-yard field goal had put the Rams ahead, Morrall passed 22 yards to Studstill for Detroit's only touchdown. The Lions' defense held Los Angeles to 22 rushing yards and 102 through the air.

At San Francisco, the home fans booted the Forty Niners as Baltimore scored on a safety, two field goals and a pair of "gift" touchdowns. The Colts led by the unusual score of 5-3 at half-time. The Forty Niners gained only 81 yards on the ground and 70 through the air.

Frank Ryan, substituting for the injured Jim Ninowski, ran 9 yards for a touchdown with 5:27 remaining to give the Browns a tie with the Eagles before 63,848 at Cleveland. Lou Groza of the Browns then missed a 45-yard field goal try with 1:16 left to play and Bobby Walston of the Eagles failed on a 41-yarder with 16 seconds remaining.

The Steelers scored 10 points in the last 27 seconds to beat the Vikings. They took a one-point lead on Lou Michaels' third field goal of the game, a 32-yarder, and added a TD on an 18-yard run by Dick Hoak with four seconds remaining.

back from their worst performance of the season—that against the Wolfpack — to their best.

•I was talking to Wally Butts (former coach and now athletic director at Georgia) the other day.

He says the Georgia-Florida game is one filled with deep-rooted tradition dating back to 1915. It will be the 40th meeting between our two teams, of which Georgia has won 25 and Florida 13. One ended in a tie.

Wally told of the 1958 game when Georgia dominated uday but Florida pulled it out when Jimmy Dunn (now Gator assistant coach) raced 76 yards for the touchdown—and a 7-6 victory.

IT WILL BE that type of ball game that we will expect Saturday. Rule books don't mean anything, nor does past performances. I just hope that we play our level best.

boys last night about it. We have a real challenge in front of us in Georgia.

If we defeat them, we will wind up our conference season with a 4-2 record, which I consider a fine one. Georgia will probably be up for this game, too.

In our previous games with the Bulldogs, we have found that past performances usually don't count too much. Anything can happen and usually does.

ON OUR INJURY list this week is guard Gerald Odum, who will probably be out for the remainder of the season, end Floyd Dean with a bad elbow, and perhaps Bruce Culpepper, who has been out since early in the season.

We have some other minor injuries, too, but mostly charlie horses, and bruises.

Our plan will be to throw a balanced game of passing and running against the Bulldogs, as we have for the past three or four games.

IT WILL TAKE another effort like the one last Saturday to produce a win in Jacksonville next week, I can assure you.

Don Dougherty of Pinellas Park became the wrong part of a sandwich last Friday night at the Golden Gate Speedway. Donnie Tanner flipped into the wall and landed on top of Dougherty. Tanner is seen leaving the car, while Dougherty — understandably — had already vacated the scene.

Both Sides Silent In N.Y. News Tieup

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Twelve hours of joint negotiations ended early today with both sides declining comment on whether progress had been made toward settling the New York Newspaper Guild's strike against the shut-down Daily News.

The talks, presided over by U.S. Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, were scheduled to resume at 2 p.m. today.

Thomas J. Murphy, executive vice president and chief negotiator of the Guild, said he would report to the full Guild negotiating committee on "possible areas of development" in the scheduled session.

The Guild represents 1,100 editorial and business employees on the News, whose circulation of about 2 million is the largest of any paper in the country.

The guildsmen's strike, which forced the News to suspend publication, began midnight Wednesday when the union's contracts with all seven of the city's major dailies expired.

The News was chosen as the target of the strike in an attempt to hammer out a settlement that would set the pattern for the other papers. Main issue of the dispute concerns wages.

The morning News managed to put out one slim edition after the strike started. The 16 pages for Friday were published at the plant of the afternoon Journal-American.

Leaders of nine newspaper craft unions—4,000 of whose members refused to cross picket lines at the News—asked the Guild's executives to meet with them today prior to the News-Guild session.

Bertram A. Powers, chairman of the Officers Committee for Newspaper Unity, an interunion group, said the meeting had been called "to hear a full report from the Guild on the present status of the negotiations with the News."

"In addition," he said, "the unions wish to consider future plans of the Guild in its efforts to secure contracts with the other newspapers of New York City."

The New York Newspaper Guild, a unit of the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild, held individual contracts with the seven major newspapers.

The newspapers are represented by the Publishers Association of New York City in negotiations with the craft unions—such as printers, stereotypers and pressmen—whose contracts are due to expire soon.

Powers Quits CIA, Tests U2s

BURBANK, Calif., Nov. 5 (UPI)—Francis Gary Powers, the U2 pilot shot down over Russia in 1960, has resigned from the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and taken a "routine test pilot job" with Lockheed Aircraft.

Powers' resignation was announced Saturday in Washington. A Lockheed spokesman here said the 33-year-old test pilot started work for the company shortly after his resignation from the CIA.

"It's strictly a routine test pilot job—only with U2s," said the Lockheed spokesman. "It involves checking out the U2s that are modified, maintained and overhauled."

Lockheed built the so-called "sky spy" plane in which Powers was shot down over Russia on May 1, 1960. Powers was captured and sentenced to prison, but was released last February in exchange for convicted Russian spy Rudolph Abel.

Until last month, Powers was employed at CIA headquarters in Washington, D.C.

Labor Official Says Medicare Top Issue

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (UPI)—A spokesman for the AFL-CIO said yesterday that medical care for the aged would be the issue that determined the winner of Tuesday's congressional election, despite the Cuban crisis.

Nelson Cruikshank, director of the federation's department of social security, said that while Cuba is foremost in everyone's mind, it was not an issue because both parties were backing President Kennedy on the crisis.

CLOSES WITH 'BREAKTHROUGH'

U.S. Ends Pacific Test Series

HONOLULU, Nov. 5 (AP)—The United States has lowered the curtain on its Pacific high altitude nuclear test series by detonating an unspectacular low-yield device over Johnston Island.

The shot was the fifth success in nine high-altitude tries this year, and represented a breakthrough in the series. Only two weeks ago, the United States had one success and four failures on its scoreboard.

Four straight "winners" put the program on the plus side, and then Joint Task Force 8 announced the completion of the long, drawn-out series which should have ended last July.

After treating the Hawaiian Islands to two magnificent auroral displays, one which was seen from New Zealand to Alaska, and two lesser sights, scientists at distant Johnston Island bowed out with a relatively small explosion.

In Honolulu, some 750 miles away, it appeared only as a blue and white flash of light, although it had the strength of the atom bomb that leveled Hiroshima in 1945.

The low-yield device was lifted skyward from its Johnston Island launching pad by an Army Nike-Hercules rocket. It marked the first use of the Nike as a nuclear carrier in altitude testing, and was the first occasion on which a device had been exploded at the scheduled time.

The Nike Booster was right on target in its short flight to a firing altitude of 20 to 30 miles. At precisely 9:30 p.m. HST (2:30 a.m. EST Sunday), a lightning type flash crossed the skies.

The shot packed a punch of less than 20,000 tons of TNT, one of the two least powerful detonations of the series. An Oct. 19 explosion also had a low-yield range.

Eleven hours after the test, Joint Task Force 8 officials at Pearl Harbor announced that the program had ended. It began April 25, was postponed from July to October when a Thor booster blew up on its pad, and continued to be dogged by postponements during the past month.

Saturday's success apparently had no effect on trans-Pacific communications. The Federal Aviation Agency and the Air Force reported their radio channels remained normal during the test. The same word came from civilian airlines and communications.

A prime purpose of the altitude tests is to determine if nuclear blasts can hide missile attacks or, conversely, knock out warning systems.

Two sub-megaton blasts blew holes in the ionosphere which reflects radio signals, but communications were disrupted only briefly.

Since April 25, Joint Task Force 8 chalked up the following record of successful shots: Five high-altitude tests from Johnston Island, 29 devices dropped from aircraft both at Christmas and Johnston Islands, a Polaris submarine test.

IT'S A LONG-LOST CAUSE, GENTS!
The championship flight foursome of Duke Flick, Koby Koblenzer, Paul Dolan and Clyde Sussex peer into the lake at Silver Lake yesterday, trying to find the lost golf ball.

Koblencer, Flick Win Conference Race Is Tight

With the season a little more than half over, the issue remains very much in doubt. The first division Western Conference teams continue to keep the top rung of the league just as tight as it has been for most of the season.

It was a great week for the passers. Vernon Korhn, who had been throwing mostly to big Bruce Wiesley, turned to Terry Heath, also an end, for some help, and the trio led Plant over Chamberlain 28-21. The Chiefs made a valiant second half effort, but it fell short. The win placed the Panthers in a second place tie with Lakeland, who lost a non-conference game to rugged Miami Jackson.

Despite the brilliant performances by his aerial combination, Panther coach John Burgess insisted on referring to the "great team effort" which went into the victory, remembering that passes are not completed without good protection. The Panthers play Robinson, perhaps the Conference's most improved team this week, at the Knight's field.

Randy Smith dropped the bombs in Robinson's attack, as the Knights discovered that they could pass too. Winter Haven's hapless Blue Devils were the victims, as Robinson won 28-6. Smith, throwing mostly to halfback Fred Branch, hit on 9 of 13 for a total of 143 yards. The lone Winter Haven touchdown came on a 69-yard drive in the first period. The victory pulled Robinson's over-all record over the 500 mark at 4-3, even though their conference mark is only 2-3.

At Manatee, Bob Stewart is attempting to figure out a maddening puzzle. How can a team score 26 points against Hillsborough's capable defense, and then have to struggle to defeat lowly King, 7-2? To date, Hillsborough is the only team against whom the Hurricanes have managed to score more than two touchdowns. To make matters even more embarrassing, the majority of the game was spent with Manatee in King's end of the field. Jimmy Walker's fine punting was instrumental in the Manatee win, as his long punts kept the Lions operating from deep in their own territory throughout the game.

The victory, unconvincing though it was, still gave the Canes a first place tie with Hillsborough. Both the Terriers and Hurricanes now stand at 5-1 in conference play.

Deryl Borders was another quarterback who enjoyed a big night as Hillsborough roughed up winless Jefferson, 25-0. Borders, noted mostly for his fine running, completed 7 of 12 aerials for 85 yards, most of them coming before the Terriers had sated the game away. It was only 6-0 at halftime.

It may have been a costly victory though, John Lopez, who line coach John Hamilton considers one of the squads best blocking linemen, suffered a kidney injury and coach Bernie Wilson is just hoping that the 190-pound Senior will be ready for the Thanksgiving day game with Plant. Fullback Wayne Pitts suffered some more trouble from his already bruised ribs, but X-rays taken Friday night were negative, and Wilson expects the big fullback to be ready for Lakeland this Friday night.

Graham on Comeback Trail at Hesterly

The standing room only sign may go up at the Fort Homer Hesterly Armory tomorrow night when Eddie Graham, former southern champion, starts his comeback in a team match which caps Promoter Cowboy Luttrall's four-match card which will start at 8:30 o'clock.

Sidelined by the Great Malenko in a match in Jacksonville in early summer, Graham will try to start evening the score with the Russian in the two out of three falls match which will have a time limit of one hour.

Don Curtis, the Buffalo speedster, who has a few arguments to settle with Malenko himself, will be Graham's partner. Malenko will bank on the Crusher, who resembles a Sherman tank. Winners will take both ends of the purse.

The feud between Graham and Malenko is red hot. After injuring the Tampan, Malenko

Cincinnati Wins 1-0, Cops Third

Pete Rose scored from third on Ron Flender's sacrifice fly to left field in the bottom of the ninth inning as the Cincinnati Reds shutout the Detroit Tigers 1-0 at Al Lopez Field here yesterday.

The win gave the Reds undisputed possession of third place in the Florida Winter Baseball League. They are only one and a half games behind the league leading St. Louis Cardinals and a half game behind the Chicago White Sox.

The contest was a pitcher's duel between Cincinnati's Sammy Ellis and Detroit's Larry Foster for six innings. Then both pitchers were relieved and it became a standoff between George McWilliams of the Reds and Tom Gregory of the Tigers.

But Gregory weakened in the ninth. He walked Rose, who batted for McWilliams, and Jim Wynn. Then Tommy Helms beat out a bunt to load the bases with no outs.

Ken Magown came in to pitch for the Tigers but Flender hit the long fly which enabled Rose to score.

It was Cincinnati's 12th win in 18 games and McWilliams' first of the season.

Both teams played outstanding defensive ball with Detroit completing two double plays while the Reds made one.

'Georgia Commands Respect'—Graves 'We'll Pass Against Gators'—Griffith

By JOHNNY GRIFFITH
Special to The Times

ATHENS, Ga. — It will certainly take heads-up football, and a supreme effort on our part to beat the University of Florida this weekend in Jacksonville.

At this point our squad is all even—two wins, two losses and three ties—including that 10-10 game against North Carolina State.

I FEEL THAT we have had our share of "good" and "bad" games this year, and I guess people call us an up and down team. But we are capable of moving the ball well both on the ground and in the air.

Of course, I would be stretching the truth a bit if I were to say that we would not pass against Florida. Even though they defeated Auburn last week, the Tigers still collected 200 yards through the air.

For what I understand, Florida's pass defense has improved, and ought to be a test for our quarterback Larry Rakestraw to end Micky Babb passing combination. This can be the best combination in the SEC.

A LOT WILL depend on our line play, too. Florida is a shade bigger on their first team, and we're about even on the second. The Gators really put the pressure on Auburn quarterbacks last Saturday, and I hope that we will be able to give ours some time.

We lost tackle Ray Rissmiller in the North Carolina State game, and will be a doubtful starter against Florida. He injured his ankle... which could be a big loss.

We also had two halfbacks injured—Don Porterfield and Frank Lankewicz—but we have a couple of more to take their place if they are not able to return.

AFTER FLORIDA, we will have Auburn and Georgia Tech to face—no easy task in any team's book. But the boys always seem to be fired up against the Gators. And maybe they will snap GAINESVILLE—I would say that the Gators' 22-3 victory over Auburn last Saturday was the finest since I've been here at Florida. It was great in many respects, but mainly because I feel the boys found themselves... and it perhaps gave us the impetus to finish this season in fine fettle.

I'm certainly not saying that we WILL finish that way, because we still have Georgia, FSU and Miami left... a tough schedule in anybody's book.

I WAS JUST thinking today... this game with Auburn and the win over Texas A&M were, I believe, our two best games of the season. And when you stop to analyze the situation, you must realize that Florida came off the floor in both games. Duke defeated Florida 28-21, and the Gators came back to whip A&M 42-6.

We lost to LSU 23-0, and came back to defeat Auburn.

Sure, I guess we capitalized on more breaks this game than against LSU, but that's the sign of a good heads-up football team.

IN GEORGIA, we will expect perhaps more throwing than anything else, with their fine quarterbacks Larry Rakestraw and Jake Saye. They have some fine runners, too, in fullback Leonard Brester and halfback Billy Knowles.

Of course, Georgia is an in and out team... they've had their good quarters and good halves offensively. They looked good against Kentucky, who has been real tough for everybody.

Their forte on the ground is inside running. This, combined with the passing of Rakestraw and Saye, makes the T-offense of Georgia's one of the better ones.

THIS WEEK, too, we will be faced with morale problems. I talked to the MIAMI (P)—The powerful Key West Conchs grabbed the No. 8 spot in the top ten ratings of Florida high school football teams on weight of a 14-7 win over Miami Beach.

Sportswriters and prep football coaches voted the Conchs (6-0-1) into the top ten for the first time Sunday.

The poll, conducted by The Herald, saw Miami High remain in first place for the third straight week.

Fort Lauderdale slipped from 2nd to 5th place after losing to North Miami, 10-7.

Sammy, Seminoles Eye Georgia Tech

By JOE MICHAELS

TALLAHASSEE—The sun shone brightly over the Florida State University campus this weekend but there was nothing but gloom in the big tepee as big Chief Sammy Seminole approached.

Sammy, looking a little downcast himself for a change, was secretly hoping that he wouldn't find Chief Bill Peterson, head of the Seminole tribe which had been thoroughly scalped by a band of Houston Cougars, 7-0.

But Chief Pete was there, as usual, and if Sammy expected him to be sulking, he was surprised. Pete was downcast, surely, but already he had his sights set on bigger things—Georgia Tech's Engineers in Atlanta this coming Saturday afternoon.

Pete took the initiative and said: "Hi Sammy. Now I guess you'll believe me. I told you last week those Houston boys would be tough. Nobody would believe me then but they should now."

"How, Pete," said Sammy, "Me sure do believe you. Those Warriors from Texas got sharp tomahawks. Me think your Warriors lucky they not lose more braves in battle."

"That's exactly what I told the sportswriters," Pete said. "We were actually fighting for our lives the entire game. We're probably lucky that the score was only 7-0."

"Ugh, and how," said

Sammy. "Your Warriors got only seven first downs and 52 yards rushing. On top of that your passes get you only 97 more yards. Your Warriors didn't look like same Tribe which beat Georgia."

"They were the same boys," Pete said. "But this was a much tougher team than most people thought it was. They got 18 first downs, 273 yards rushing and 66 yards passing. If they hadn't given us two fumbles and two pass interceptions, you can imagine what the score might have been."

"You think rain from black clouds hurt your Warriors Pete?"

"Oh sure," said Pete. "It hurt our passing some but I don't think it would have made any difference if there had been a dry field and sunshine. Those Houston boys were definitely a superior team Saturday. I don't think we were as sharp as we should have been but you must give a great deal of credit to this Houston team."

"And how," said Sammy, "Where do we go from here Pete? You got Georgia Tech, Florida and Auburn coming up on next three sprints. You see where Florida massacre those Auburn Tigers and Georgia Tech clobbers good Duke team?"

"I wish I could say what the future holds, Sammy," said Pete rather sadly. "Our boys have a lot of pride but they're going to have to dig deep now."

"Heap big deep," said Sammy. "The tribes you do battle with next three moons are heap much powerful. You think maybe, Pete, you can ambush some of them, maybe catch them by surprise?"

"Well, we're sure going to try," said Pete. "This is still a fine football team. We've surprised some people already this season and we might have some more. But you've got to remember we play these next three on their home fields, each has a proven fine team and, unfortunately, we can't play but 11 men at a time. The future doesn't look bright, does it?"

"You better believe that, and how," said Sammy. "If your Warriors had got Houston scalp Saturday they could have lost the last three and still had good hunting party. But now, things look heap much bad. You got any wounded Warriors?"

"Only wounded pride," said Pete. "They got plenty of bruises and bumps but they'll be ready—physically at least—for Georgia Tech. We'll just have to take them one at a time from here on out and hope."

"Me talk to medicine man," said Sammy. "Ask him to talk to Great White Father. Maybe that help?"

"Thanks, S a m m y," said Pete, a hint of a smile brightening his face for the first time. "We can use all the help we can get from that source. But our boys will still have to stand on their own feet the next three Saturdays."

"You heap big right," said Sammy. "And how."

NOT DUE TO INSULIN LACK

One Form of Diabetes Mild

By W. C. ALVAREZ, M.D.

Some people write wanting to know what diabetes insipidus is and why they have it. They should not confuse the two main types of diabetes: one, the mellitus, in which the urine is likely to contain sugar, and the other, the insipidus, in which the urine contains no sugar.

According to Dr. E. R. Burka, of Columbia University, who recently wrote an excellent article on this subject, diabetes insipidus is due to a lack of what is called the anti-diuretic hormone, or ADH for short. This substance is formed in what is called the hypothalamo-neurohypophyseal system.

The hypothalamus is a very important tiny area at the base of the brain. It is connected with the hypophysis, which is part of the pituitary gland (perhaps the most important gland of internal secretion in the body). Some evidence indicates that ADH is formed in the hypothalamus and is stored in the posterior part of the pituitary gland.

In many cases, when a person with diabetes insipidus dies and a post-mortem examination is performed, the pathologist finds something wrong, such as a small tumor in this important spot at the base of the brain.

In other cases of diabetes insipidus in which the cause is not known, there is usually a hereditary basis. This form of the disease appears in childhood, and is compatible with a normal life span of the patient. In other cases the tremendous outpouring of the urine may be due to a failure of the tiny tubules in the kidney to take much of the water in the urine back into the blood.

In other cases there may be an insufficient amount of calcium and potassium in the blood, and this abnormality must be studied. In a few cases there seems to be a psychogenic (mentally caused) tendency to drink great quantities of water. A good treatment of the disease is to give a drug called vasopressin, which is identical with ADH, and is made out of pituitary glands.

To show that the disease can be mild and long-lasting, Dr. Burka tells of a 27-year-old man who suffered from diabetes insipidus for 17 years, and got by as a paratrooper without any treatment. He put out from five to seven quarts of urine a day.

In cases of diabetes insipidus, many a patient can help himself by blowing into his nose every eight hours 40 mgs. of a powder made from dried posterior pituitary glands.

Some women fear menopause, although they may have virtually no reaction. To help his readers understand the change that takes place, Dr. Alvarez has written a booklet, "Menopause and Hysterectomy." You may get a copy by sending 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request for it to Dr. Walter C. Alvarez, Dept. TAM, The Register and Tribune Syndicate, Box 957, Des Moines 4, Iowa.

Help Stamp Out Delinquency

IPSWICH, Mass. (AP)—Ipswich reportedly has the lowest juvenile crime rate in the state. Officials say here's how it's done:

Teen-agers from freshman through senior high school grades are eligible for the town's teen-age club.

The club holds weekly dances, beach parties, minstrel shows and other events.

The organization has established two small scholarships—$100 each—for top-ranking members.

It collected $2,000 for the Jimmy Fund—an agency dedicated to aid cancer-stricken children.

All events are supervised by the club sponsor—Patrolman Joseph W. Carpenter.

He says, "Kids are good if they're kept busy."

Another Weapon Toy

CORN, Okla. (AP)—The boomerang business is booming in Oklahoma.

An enterprising 28-year-old mechanical engineer from near-by Cloud Chief, Okla., W. H. Isbell, has found a ready market for the curved weapon of the Australian aborigines.

Isbell's boomerang isn't the lethal variety which the Australian back-bushers use for hunting. It's a copy of light-weight sycamore wood designed as a toy.

Isbell has made 20,000 of the boomerangs since he first got into the business to pick up some extra money eight years ago when he was a student at John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Ark. Now Isbell has set up a production line to produce 150 boomerangs a day in an abandoned dry cleaning shop in this small southwestern Oklahoma town.

"We're making them for stores in the Southwest and Texas and quite a few orders are coming from the West Coast," Isbell reported.
