Aretha Franklin Presents: Soul Rewind

Smokey Robinson and the Miracles

The “Queen of Soul” Aretha Franklin presents a collection of rare performances by legendary R&B artists of the classic 1960’s and 1970’s soul era, including long-lost archival material that has been recovered from film vaults across the United States, England, Germany and France.

Get ready to get down to the sounds of Ray Charles, Otis Redding, Percy Sledge, Wilson Pickett, Al Green, Smokey Robinson and the Miracles, The Spinners, and a host of other greats. Aretha’s signature song, “Respect,” written by Otis Redding, and adopted as an anthem by the civil rights and feminist movements, is as powerful now as it was when it hit the charts in 1967. Airs Saturday, July 31, at 8 p.m.

JULY TV HIGHLIGHTS

The History Detective's season premiere launches into space for an exhilarating hour exploring the excitement, promise and ingenuity that fueled America's foray into space exploration. Join the five History Detectives, Tukufu Zuberi, Gwen Wright, Eduardo Pagan, Elyse Luray and Wes Cowan as they give new and sometimes shocking insights into our nation's fascination with space.

Great African Balloon Adventure In this three-part documentary, host Stephen Tompkinson embarks across the African continent in a hot air balloon. Inspired by Jules Verne's first novel, Five Weeks in a Balloon, the program follows Tompkinson as he travels through Tanzania, Rwanda, Zambia, Botswana and Namibia. Aired Thursday, July 22, 8-10:15 p.m.

Breakfast Special is a celebration of the most important meal of the day. Viewers visit unusual breakfast spots around the country and sample a diversity of fare, including pancakes in rural New York and "loco moco" in Hilo, Hawaii, at Ken's where Carlene Haye (above) serves pancakes, along with more traditional Hawaiian fare. There's more to life than a bowl of cold cereal! Aired Monday, July 26, at 10 p.m.
