

Marvin Hamlisch Presents: The 70s, The Way We Were

Renowned composer and conductor Marvin Hamlisch hosts and performs in this musical blast from the past. Three Dog Night, Debby Boone, Bobby Goldsboro, Peaches and Herb, Gloria Gaynor are a few of the musical greats who join him. The 1970s hit parade includes "You Light Up My Life," "Raindrops Keep Fallin' on My Head," "Joy to the World," and, of course, "The Way We Were." Hamlisch fondly recalls the way we were in the 1970s. As he says in this special, "The country breathed a sigh of relief when the 1970s began. The new decade brought us peace, confidence and a feeling of national pride in our accomplishments. We had reached the stars we were aiming for; it's a goal worth remembering today." Aired Sunday, August 1, at 8 p.m., and Saturday, August 7, at 4 p.m.

The illustration shows a young girl with dark hair, wearing a green sweater and purple pants, sitting on the grass under a large, leafy green tree. She is holding a blue book with a yellow sun on the cover. A monkey is hanging upside down from a branch of the tree, holding a red apple. The background features a city skyline with several buildings under a blue sky with white clouds.

It's WordGirl!

New to the WUSF kids' block on 16.1, WordGirl follows the adventures of a mild-mannered fifth grader, Becky Bostford, who becomes WordGirl, armed with a cape, vocabulary words and lots of definitions. WordGirl airs Monday through Friday at 7:30 p.m. beginning August 30.
