FOR INFORMATION, EDUCATION AND ENTERTAINMENT • SEPTEMBER 2010

We've Grown!

On September 15, WUSF 89.7 will change to news and information with all night jazz programming. At the same time, we will begin broadcasting an all classical format on WSMR 89.1. Our HD station, WUSF 89.7², will also simulcast all classical programming. WSMR 89.1's broadcast area will cover all of Sarasota, Manatee, Charlotte, DeSoto and Hardee counties, and portions of Pinellas, Hillsborough, Polk and Lee counties. For all schedules, see inside!

Changes!

Since early August, WUSF has been sharing the exciting news of our new radio station purchase and scheduled format change. On September 15, WUSF 89.7 will broadcast all news and information programs with all night jazz and we'll sign on WSMR 89.1 with an all classical format.

It's thanks to your generous financial support that WUSF Public Media is able to purchase another radio station to increase our public service for the region.

As we have researched the listening needs and preferences of our audience over the years, the results have unequivocally indicated the desire for increased media choices in the area of news and information and in the music we offer. Our classical music lovers have asked us to provide more adventurous selections and to broadcast more of the classical repertoire. You'll be able to hear such quality national programs as NPR's Talk of the Nation and The Diane Rehm Show. We've consistently heard from our listeners that they want these programs and we're finally able to deliver.

In focus group research we did in June, many of our listeners were enthusiastic about the idea of a second station, but were concerned about the cost and worried that we might risk too much and lose both radio stations. "After all," they said, "don't forget the economy." I want to assure you that we believe this is going to be a successful new opportunity that will increase our value to the community overall.

You can play a role in our success. We invite you to become a founding member of WSMR 89.1. (See the sidebar on this page.)

You don't have long to wait for this momentous change. On Wednesday, September 15, WSMR 89.1 will become central Florida's only all classical station and WUSF 89.7 will become a full-time news and information station with all night jazz.

We hope you appreciate the power of your investment. Your support has helped us double the power of public radio for everyone in our region.

JoAnn Urofsky General Manager

Become a Founding Member of WSMR 89.1!

This is your opportunity to celebrate and support central Florida's only all classical station.

As a Founding Member, you can provide a strong start for this new home for classical music.

Your financial support will help us broaden the repertoire and bring you programs like Performance Today, which showcases live concerts by famous artists in concert halls around the globe and brings you interviews, news, and features about classical music, as well. In addition, it will allow us to bring the community more local live performances in our new broadcast and production facilities located on the USF Sarasota-Manatee campus in Sarasota. Stay tuned for the exciting details of becoming a Founding Member of WSMR 89.1. You'll be glad you did!

THE CAT IN THE HAT IS BACK!

Coming to television for the first time ever in an animated series, The Cat in the Hat Knows a Lot About That! whisks pre-schoolers off on a voyage of scientific discovery. Best friends and neighbors, Sally and Nick, are transported on fantastical journeys to all corners of our natural world, including the bottom of the ocean, a rainforest and a beehive. With the Cat as their guide, and his two energetic helpers, Thing One and Thing Two, and the enigmatic Fish along for the ride, every outing becomes an unpredictable adventure, especially when Sally and Nick travel in the Cat's Thinga-ma-jigger, a quintessentially Seussian contraption that instantly transforms from plane to boat to submarine with just a flick of the jigger-ma-whizzer or a honk of the shrinka-ma-doodle. Airs Monday through Friday at 7 p.m., beginning September 6, on WUSF, Channel 16.1.

OUR PARTNERS

Diana Rao lives in Carrollwood with her husband and four cats. This newly retired registered nurse has been a passionate fan and member of WUSF for the past 10 years. Initially, Diana fell in love with WUSF 89.7's nighttime jazz programming. Then she discovered the station's wealth of news content, ranging from NPR's offerings to locally produced programming. Before too long, she came to depend on that content as an engaged citizen who wanted to make informed decisions. In Diana's view, democracy is not a spectator sport. "I rely on fair and unbiased reporting to help me form educated opinions."

Diana also believes in giving back. She and her husband have been loyal members for years. But the Rao's deep appreciation for the station recently led them to take it to the next level—as Cornerstone Society members.

"WUSF gives so much," she says. "My husband and I felt it was time for us to do more of our share." When Diana is not plugged into WUSF, she spends her spare time at Big Cat Rescue, a sanctuary for abandoned and abused exotic cats in Tampa. She and her husband are also big fans of global travel. "We try to stay in touch with the world," she says. "I think that's something that most WUSF listeners and viewers have in common."

Covering issues like the cost and quality of health care isn't easy, especially in a state with such a wide diversity of opinions and needs as Florida. That's why I was so excited when WUSF announced its new local journalism project, the Healthy State Collaborative. It's becoming an important source for Florida's health news. I should know; that's my business.
