'Tis the Season

It's the holiday season; more accurately, it's the season of holidays. Around the globe, December is a month of celebration. Holiday programming from WUSF Public Media invites you to join the celebration.

This month, WUSF TV viewers can enjoy the splendid tradition of the National Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony; retrace Jesus' steps in the Holy Land; and experience holiday music by Faith Hill, Andrea Bocelli, the Annie Moses Band and a host of other great performers. On top of that? A multicultural mosaic of musicians will sing the anthems of many faiths at the Music Center of Los Angeles. The Sesame Street gang will search for a missing menorah. The Nutcracker will kick up his heels in classic and re-imagined ballet performances. On Classical WSMR 89.1 the Choir of King's College, Cambridge will sing A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols. Travel across the United States with jazz on New Year's Eve with Toast of the Nation from the Kennedy Center to Lincoln Center, and night spots in Chicago, Denver and San Francisco on WUSF 89.7. Enjoy!

Our new antenna is in place and Classical WSMR 89.1 will be a full-power radio station offering the best in classical music around the clock. Classic music lovers—from Sarasota, Tampa, St. Petersburg and from around the world—can listen to the station online at any time. We invite you to do so!

This season of holidays comes only once a year. Our loyal supporters give to us all year long. Our recent Fall Membership Campaign was our most successful ever. We welcomed more than 1,500 new members and raised a little over $430,000 for WUSF 89.7's new format of news and information and all night jazz. The generosity of our listeners never ceases to amaze us. Thanks to you, we can continue to provide the valuable programming you've come to depend on. That gives all of us at WUSF Public Media a reason to celebrate!

You've given so much to us. Our holiday programming is one way we give back. As you gather with your friends and family to share the pleasures and joy of the season, we hope our inspired programming will add to your joy. Happy holidays from all of us!

From the WUSF Director of Business and Finance

WUSF Public Media now includes 3 broadcast stations – your NPR station WUSF 89.7, Classical WSMR 89.1 and WUSF TV. I thought it seemed like a good time to explain how our fundraising and budgeting works.

All contributions to WUSF Public Media entities are processed by the USF Foundation. Each station has its own revenue and expense budget and a separate Foundation account for processing donor gifts. Donor contributions can be designated to support one or all the stations. On-air fundraising is conducted separately on each station with the funds raised during the on-air campaign supporting that station only.

There is one thing you may notice the stations sharing, and that's the on-air staff. You'll hear our hosts on TV and on the two radio stations. This is a tribute to their talent and versatility as well as the necessity to be as efficient as possible.

Allow me to thank you for your support. We appreciate it and take our stewardship responsibilities very seriously. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact me at 813-974-8690 or dyearwood@wusf.org.
