Leadership Listserv

The Leadership Department at USFSP has a listserv where you can send announcements and messages about important events to all subscribers!

Who can send emails?

Anybody! To send an email on the listserv, simply send your email to USFSPlead@it.usf.edu. You're email is then sent to everybody who has joined the listserv.

How do I join?

It's simple! To join, go to <http://tiny.cc/leadlistserv> and fill in the information under "Subscribing to USFSPlead".

What should I send?

Anything! Got an important announcement or want to advertise an event? Feel free to send your information to USFSPlead@it.usf.edu.

I have another question!

For other questions, contact Ralph Reid, Student Life Graduate Assistant, at roreid@usf.edu or by calling 727-873-4500.

LeaderSpeak: Police Chief Chuck Harmon

In a period of 28 days, the city of St. Petersburg and its police department were shaken in to its core after the murder of three St. Petersburg Police Department officers. The city and its officers were held together thanks to the leadership and guidance of Police Chief Chuck Harmon, who was described as the rock that held this city together by Mayor Bill Foster. Join us this Tuesday for an evening with the Chief where he will discuss his leadership style of running the police department in the fourth largest city in the state. Join us Tuesday, April 12 at 6:00 pm in Davis 105 for this great LeaderSpeak!
