This breathtaking documentary captures the park's unspoiled natural majesty with stunning, aerial footage. You'll soar above such natural wonders as the Lamar Valley, the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone and the geyser basins. Along the way, you'll learn fascinating facts about the park's geology, its native peoples, wildlife, and status as a global tourist destination. You'll even get to experience a literal bird's-eye viewpoint, as the helicopter camera retraces a bald eagle's flight path. It's Yellowstone as you've never seen it before. You might even call it uplifting. Aired Thursday, June 16, at 8 p.m.
