and Other 4th Grade Achievements

World Peace and Other 4th Grade Achievements interweaves the story of a remarkable educator and the extraordinary game he developed to demonstrate the complexities of peace and global conflict. Teacher John Hunter's World Peace Game is a hands-on political simulation exercise in which students tackle real-world military, economic and environmental issues. The nine- and 10-year-olds divide into groups, including nation states, the World Bank, United Nations officials, indigenous peoples and even arms dealers. They face daily challenges, including insurgencies, global warming, ethnic tensions and natural disasters. Working together, while also balancing the interests of their own "nations," they attempt to achieve global prosperity with the least amount of military intervention. World Peace and Other 4th Grade Achievements provides an inspirational look at the lasting impact of one wise and caring teacher on his students and, potentially, the world. Airs Thursday, May 24, at 8 p.m.

American Graduate Teacher Town Hall is a national public media initiative bringing together educators, parents and youth, along with non-profit, civic and corporate entities, to find solutions to address the nation's dropout crisis. In this segment, Florida teachers participate in a statewide conversation, sharing classroom experiences, suggestions and ideas for keeping kids in school. NPR's Al Letson moderates. Airs Thursday, May 24, at 9 p.m.

Uniform Betrayal: Rape in the Military examines what soldiers may not consider when signing up to serve their country—sexual assault by their brothers and sisters in arms. Filmmakers Jennifer Molina and Sarah Pusateri explore this issue through the eyes of survivors. A production of healthstate.org and WUSF Public Media. Airs Wednesday, May 2, at 10 p.m.

Natural World: Wild Indonesia Indonesia's 17,000 islands make up the largest and most varied archipelago on earth. From freezing glaciers to coral reefs, orangutans to Komodo dragons, the sheer diversity of landscapes and life defies the imagination. Airs Thursdays at 9 p.m., beginning May 3.

Mister Rogers & Me After children's TV icon Fred Rogers died, TV producer Benjamin Wagner and his brother, Christofer, set out to meet some of Mister Rogers' real-life "neighbors," aiming to discover more about the man himself. Airs Wednesday, May 9, at 10 p.m., and Sunday, May 13, at 7 p.m.
