Great Performances:
" Jackie Evancho:
Music of the Movies"

Jackie Evancho, the little girl with a big voice, showcases songs from the silver screen. Recorded in the movie palace splendor of the Orpheum Theater, Jackie sings "My Heart Will Go On" (Titanic), "Some Enchanted Evening" (South Pacific), "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" (The Lion King), "Pure Imagination" (Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory), "When She Loved Me" (Toy Story 2) and many more...

Airs Tuesday, August 14, at 8 p.m.

This month WUSF-TV celebrates two of America's outstanding musicians and songwriters in these inspired PBS specials.

Celebrating the Music of Johnny Cash:

We Walk the Line In such songs as "Walk the Line," "Folsom Prison Blues" and "Long Black Veil," Johnny Cash gave voice to people we rarely heard about in popular music. Nearly 60 years after his booming first notes hit the airwaves and almost 10 years since his passing, We Walk the Line celebrates Cash's legacy. Renowned music producer Don Was lined up an all-star cast for this monumental concert, including Willie Nelson, Kris Kristofferson, Sheryl Crow, Pat Monahan of Train, Ronnie Dunn, Lucinda Williams, Jamey Johnson, Shooter Jennings, Shelby Lynne and others. Airs Friday, August 17, at 8 p.m.

Pegi and Neil Young's Concert for the Bridge School Organized by Neil Young and his wife, Pegi, the Bridge School Benefit Concert is an all-acoustic concert held every October at Shoreline Amphitheatre in Mountain View, California. All proceeds directly benefit the operations of The Bridge School, a non-profit organization that aids individuals with severe speech and physical impairments. Some of the biggest names in music participate in these concerts, and the 25th anniversary, in October 2011, was no exception. Artists included Bruce Springsteen, Patti Smith, Pearl Jam, David Bowie, Bob Dylan, Paul McCartney, The Who, Tom Petty, Simon and Garfunkel, Neil Young and Crazy Horse, The Pretenders, Bonnie Raitt, The Dave Mathews Band, James Taylor, Tom Waits, Brain Wilson and more. Airs Saturday, August 18, at 10 p.m.

Ed Sullivan's Top Performers 1966-1969 (My Music). This program is the sequel to Ed Sullivan's Rock and Roll Classics and features an exciting line-up of original 1960s performers singing their biggest hits from 1966 to 1969. Hosted by Ed Sullivan and Jay Thomas. Airs Monday, August 13, at 8 p.m.

Julia Child Memories: Bon Appétit! This retrospective includes some of the most memorable episodes from Child's classic cooking series, The French Chef. In addition to testimonials from noted chefs, the program features commentary from Meryl Streep, Nora Ephron and Stanley Tucci. Airs Wednesday, August 15, at 8 p.m.

Introducing Nathan Pacheco Accompanied by world-renowned musicians and London's Philharmonia Orchestra, the popular American singer-songwriter will perform original compositions along with newly created renditions of beloved classics. Airs Monday, August 20, at 9:30 p.m.
