Awesome professor. I can tell he's passionate about this class. I wish I could take him again. Always, always is caring.

Dr. Knight went above and beyond despite the impact of the coronavirus. Consistently uploaded lectures, sent emails, and provided additional information.

Handled the COVID19 situation with ease and maintained class on routine schedule under all the hardships.

Knight is such an amazing professor. He really works hard to help out the students and makes history exciting. It's always refreshing to see a professor who loves what they teach and that's exactly what you get with Knight.

One of the best professors I've encountered in all my Tim at this university.

Passionate about the materials in a way that makes it fun for the learner! Extremely knowledgeable and always available to help students when needed. Goes above and beyond to make sure we have everything we need.

Prof. Knight is very dedicated not only as a professor, but in his quest to bring Irish artifacts and publications to a new home at USF. He takes his time with students to ensure that each lesson is understood and how it is linked to modern events. I am very pleased with the instruction, so much so that I enrolled Prof. Knight's summer class.

Professor Knight is such a great professor. He's so passionate about history and the Irish. Every class was interesting and packed with so much info. He's always willing to stay after class to talk to numerous students. He's always excited to talk to students and the passion is transferable. He is detailed in his lectures and provides many tools to be successful in this class. Best professor I have had in such a long time.

Very knowledgeable in the topic and expresses passion of sharing his knowledge. Online lecture series made the transition online easier.

Enjoyed this class thoroughly.

Great class. Very intriguing to someone who's never taken a history class, let alone an Irish-focused one. I would definitely recommend.

Great content.

HIGHLY recommend this course for any and everyone.

It was very interesting and I'm disappointed that I'm graduating b/c I would like to take other classes relating to this topic such as the Vikings and also Irish Language course.

This course provides an eye-opening history of the Irish as they immigrated to America and the contributions that were made. I highly recommend this course to any student concentrating in American History. It is a must.

Very interesting and intriguing course. A lot of broad major themes applicable to social sciences.

Very interesting course material and well organized.
