secret life of elephants

Set against the backdrop of one of Africa's most stunning locations — the Samburu National Reserve in northern Kenya — this compelling, three-part series follows the remarkable stories of wild elephants. From the first faltering steps of the newborn Breeze, to the experiences of the elderly matriarch Babylon, this series explores behaviors that reveal elephants to be caring and compassionate beings. It's a unique opportunity to see these animals through the eyes of those who know them best, including David Daballen, who can instantly recognize 500 different elephants by sight alone, and the father/daughter team, Saba and Iain Douglas-Hamilton, who interpret their secret and beguiling world with uncanny precision. Airs Thursdays, 9 p.m., beginning July 3.
