FRIDAY EVENING FILM SERIES...

Pink Panther FESTIVAL

featuring PETER SELLERS in
THE PINK PANTHER

In this, perhaps his best known role, Peter Sellers is Inspector Clouseau of the Paris police, an inveterate bungler, the sort of man whose wife will not only two-time him but two-time him with the jewel thief he's been assigned to catch. And still he won't realize what's going on. As such, it is one of Peter Sellers' best performances, a true potpourri of subtle slapstick, wry satire and plain belly laughs. And Sellers is neatly complemented by Capucine, who displays unexpected deadpan comedy abilities as his wife, and by David Niven as the epitome of a suave sophisticated thief. There's also Robert Wagner as Niven's eager nephew and Claudia Cardinale as a Eurasian princess everyone's out to fleece. A couple of gorilla costumes, some runaway cars and a fabulous gem called THE PINK PANTHER get involved in the proceedings too. Blake Edwards' blithe direction gives it pace, style and a lot of incidental side-splitting humor.

NATIONAL TEACHERS EXAMS

PRINCETON, NEW JERSEY. Students completing teacher preparation programs may take the National Teacher Examinations on any of the three different test dates announced by the Educational Testing Service, a nonprofit, educational organization which prepares and administers this testing program.

New dates for the testing of prospective teachers are: November 8, 1975, February 21, 1976, and July 17, 1976. The tests will be given at nearly 400 locations throughout the United States.

Results of the National Teachers Examination are used by many large school districts as one of several factors in the selection of new teachers and by several states for certification of licensing of teachers. Some colleges also require all seniors preparing to teach to take the examination.

On each full day of testing, prospective teachers may take the Common Examinations which measure their professional preparation and general educational background and an Area Examination which measures their mastery of the subject they expect to teach.

Prospective candidates should contact the school systems in which they seek employment, or their colleges, for specific advice on which examinations to take and on which date they should be taken.

The BULLETIN OF INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES contains a list of test centers, and general information about the examinations, as well as a Registration Form. Write: National Teacher Examinations, Box 911, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.
