NOVA "First Man on the Moon"

NOVA presents an intimate portrait of Neil Armstrong, the first person to set foot on the moon, through interviews with Armstrong's family and friends.

This is an inspiring story of heroic risk-taking and humble dedication to advancing humanity's adventure in space.

Airs Sunday, December 14, 8 p.m.

Great Railway Journeys of Europe Historian and archetypal Englishman Julian Davidson travels from the frozen wastes of Norway to the sunny shores of the Italian Adriatic coast, sampling the delights of some of the most dramatic and fascinating railway journeys in Europe. Airs Wednesday, December 3, 8 p.m.

Rock Rewind 1965-1967 (My Music) The 1960s was a period of massive social and political upheaval. Iconic actor Adam West, best known as the "Caped Crusader" on the '60s TV version of Batman, hosts this special with archival performances of hits that resonate nearly half a century later. Airs Saturday, December 6, 8 p.m.

Classic Hollywood Musicals These five classic Hollywood musicals (The Wizard of Oz, Yankee Doodle Dandy, Singin' in the Rain, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers, and Viva Las Vegas) take us on a journey spanning the days from the Great Depression all the way to the Civil Rights Movement. Airs Sunday, December 7, 8 p.m.

Saint Peter is one of the more puzzling characters in history. For many, he is the most important disciple and the “rock” of the Catholic church. But how did a simple Galilean fisherman become the first Pope? In this two-part documentary series produced for the BBC, David Suchet (who played the quirky detective in Agatha Christie’s Poirot) traces the footsteps of St. Peter – from his humble Galilean birthplace to the city of Jerusalem where a terrified Peter denies his beloved friend and teacher on the eve of the crucifixion. Along the way, Suchet seeks expertise and perspective from archeologists, scholars, and conservators. Airs Wednesday, December 17, 8-10 p.m.
