The Secret Life of Cats

You might think you understand your cat, but her secret life might shock you. In this groundbreaking experiment, 50 cats from a village in Surrey, England, are tagged with GPS collars and their every movement is recorded as they hunt in backyards and patrol garden fences and hedgerows. Discover what your cat is really up to when you're not looking.

Airs Thursday, January 29, 9 p.m.

The Secret Life of Primates In a riveting journey of discovery, renowned zoologist Charlotte Uhlenbroek undertakes a unique animal experience as she infiltrates some of the greatest wild primate groups, attempting to get closer to them than anyone has tried before. Airs Thursdays, 9 p.m., beginning January 1.

A Mother's Son When a teenage girl is murdered, Rosie, a divorced mother of two, suspects with horror that her teenage son, Jamie, is involved. Rosie's suspicions begin to tear their new family apart, particularly when she confides in Jamie's dad, her ex-husband. Airs Tuesday, January 7 (Part 1), and 14 (Part 2), 10 p.m.

THE ROOSEVELTS

An Intimate History

In this series, Ken Burns and producer Paul Barnes describe the lives and times of three great Roosevelts — Teddy, Franklin and Eleanor. Through wars, revolutions, depressions and movements, these American icons led the country through what was called “America’s century.” At times they had little in common but for one thing they always had in common: their ability, desire and conviction to lead. Airs Sundays at 9 p.m., beginning January 11.
