You might think you understand your cat, but her secret life might shock you. In this groundbreaking experiment, 50 cats from a village in Surrey, England, are tagged with GPS collars and their every movement is recorded as they hunt in backyards and patrol garden fences and hedgerows. Discover what your cat is really up to when you’re not looking.

Airs Thursday, January 29, 9 p.m.

Airs Thursday, January 29, 9 p.m.
In this series, Ken Burns and producer Paul Barnes describe the lives and times of three great Roosevelts — Teddy, Franklin and Eleanor. Through wars, revolutions, depressions and movements, these American icons led the country through what was called “America’s century.” At times they had little in common but for one thing they always had in common: their ability, desire and conviction to lead. Airs Sundays at 9 p.m., beginning January 11.
