The State Laundry also had a tournament here Wednesday.

At the Pool Saturday Night at 9:00 o'clock there will be a program, dance, songs, etc like the Dance at the Pool Mar. 30th. Admission will be $1.50 a couple. Mrs. Humes, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Travis will be in charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Ware and Mrs. Renick will be in charge of the program. You are invited to bring your friends as well as yourselves.

Mr. Ware is coming to Temple Terrace today from Jacksonville.

Miss Mary Wing daughter of Mrs. Wing of Winter Park spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. Wilmer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Travis spent several days at West Palm Beach and came home Sunday. Bobby stayed with the Wilmers while his father and mother were gone.

Mrs. F. H. Herring of Jacksonville is visiting the Smiths. Mrs. Herring is the mother of Mrs. Smith.

The Humes are painting their house.

People holler about income taxes, but nobody seemes to ask for a cut in salary to avoid them.

Mother: What's the matter Bobby? You look mournful.
Son: That's what's the matter-- I'm more'n full.
