SHOW TO BENEFIT SCHOOL. MONEY TO HELP BUY BOOKS.

There will be a moving picture show held at the school house tonight at 8 o'clock P.M. The money will help buy a set of books for the school. Admission Adults 15¢ Children 10¢

About 50 guests attended the bridge party Monday at the pool. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. H.C. Clark, Mrs. S.L. Smith, Mrs. H.L. Boston, Mrs. Harold Montgomery and Mrs. A.H. West. Mrs. R.P. Travis, general chairman, was assisted in the hospitalities by Mrs. Jack Bregar, Mrs. Homer Howell, Mrs. Basil Brook, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Jim Quinn.

Temple Terrace School will be represented in the JR. High School Swimming Championships this Sat. at the Aquatic Club with such swimmers as Janice Smith, Jimmy Hawk (Midget champ) Vernon Nelms, Billy Duncan. Coach Upson feels like they should make a good showing even though its their first meet, the experience will be of great value. Everyone in Temple Terrace is asked to turn out to encourage their Team. By Coach Upson

*The Lockey's are having their kitchen done over. I am sure it will look very nice.

Mrs. Cureton came back yesterday from about a month's visit in New York.

The game the Temple Terrace boys were going to play yesterday was postponed till next week.

There is going to be a dance held at the Pool Saturday.

Mrs. Crocker, one of the school teachers, baby was a year old yesterday.

Mrs. Helen Renick returned recently from a visit to Atlanta.
