FORMER TEMPLE TERRACER'S DIG HAD PUPS

Johnny McWhirter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. McWhirter formerly of the Terrace, who now live on Davis Island, announced to the public the other day that his dog "Sassey Susie" had pups. From the appearance of the pups you would never know that their mother was a Spaniel, but you would know that their father was a Boston Bull Dog. Johnny, better known as "Little Mac" to his friends in Temple Terrace, proudly boasts that "Sassey Susie's" pups consists of three males and one female.

The Temple Terrace Girl Scouts were treated to a watermelon cutting yesterday.
