Castle Builders

Marvel in astonishing views of architectural masterpieces—the castles of Europe and England. How do you build a castle? How were machines and men organized to create such colossal fortifications? Using CGI and dramatic reconstructions, this is the story of the architectural vision behind the building of the great medieval castles of Europe, and unearths the human story of those who labored to build them.

Airs Wednesdays, 8 p.m., August 3, 10 and 17.

Let us rock your August!
