Impeachment? Reactions Varied

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress is clearly upset about President Nixon's dismissal of Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox but no consensus has yet formed about beginning impeachment proceedings against him, a UPI poll indicated yesterday.

Approximately half the House members and senators reached said they were undecided as to whether the House should begin impeachment proceedings against Nixon. Few of those who favored the beginning of proceedings showed enthusiasm for the task they might face.

Contrary to what might be expected, a majority of the House Republicans polled said they had reached no conclusion either for or against impeachment hearings. At least two of Nixon's most consistent supporters in the House said they would support impeachment hearings if further investigation brought out more damaging facts against him.

NBC meantime disclosed results of a Quayle Poll of the general public, which it commissioned, that said 75 per cent of persons contacted opposed Nixon's firing of Cox, and that 44 per cent said Nixon should be impeached and 48 per cent said he should resign. Only 22 per cent said they approved of Nixon's conduct in office, NBC said.

The percentages add to more than 100 because some persons answered yes to both questions of whether Nixon should resign and whether he should be impeached.

Many congressmen responding to the UPI poll expressed disagreement with Nixon's dismissal of Cox. A good portion of those who did oppose impeachment proceedings said

Nixon's move was unwise, wrong or a blunder, but that it was not serious enough to warrant impeachment.

House and Senate members were asked: "Would you favor the beginning of impeachment proceedings against the President?"

In the House, which would have to make the first move on any impeachment proceeding, 66 members answered yes, 50 no and 106 were noncommittal. Broken down by party the result were 59 Democrats and 7 Republicans for, 13 Democrats and 37 Republicans against and 49 Democrats and 57 Republicans noncommittal.

In the Senate, which would have to try articles of impeachment brought by the House, the tally was 16 for impeachment proceedings, 11 against and 31 noncommittal.

Tampa Water Promises Undergo Reconsideration

BY SANDRA WRIGHT
Assistant News Editor

Dale Twachtman, Tampa Water Resources Coordinator, said yesterday the city would temporarily "try not to make any new commitments" to furnish water for large developments, and noted he was "not certain we can accommodate" projects now underway.

"My estimate is that we have probably over-committed what the system can stand,"

Twachtman said. "We have to decide whether we can keep the old promises."

TWACHTMAN said yesterday he mailed certified letters to all proposed projects of over 50 units which received water commitments within the last two years. He said the letters requested developers return "detailed" information on the construction projects by Nov. 5. Based on responses to the letters, Twachtman said he would decide where Tampa can accommodate future large development. He said a large portion of the projects are in the USF area.

"A rough look indicates more than 20,000 units are promised out," Twachtman said. "If we can't keep the old commitments, I would say we couldn't make new ones."

TWACHTMAN said it was "very obvious" development around USF was the biggest in the area. He said he is unsure whether local systems can accommodate further strain from the area.

"There may be a few more (water hook-ups) granted, but in general it does not look good for that area," said Twachtman.

Twachtman said the water crisis has been caused by inadequate planning. But he said an engineering staff is currently considering plans "that should have been thought out years ago."

TWACHTMAN said future large developments must be planned where systems can stand it. He said yesterday he granted permission for "one or two last hold-over" water hook-ups.

"Starting today, it's a whole new world," he said.

Hartley To Testify At Meeting

BY SANDRA WRIGHT
Assistant News Editor

Bert Hartley, USF vice president for Finance and Planning, has asked permission to testify before the Joint Senate-House Legislative Auditing Committee concerning bidding on a campus audio-visual project, a committee leader said yesterday.

"He will be appearing voluntarily and not under subpoena," committee chairman James Redman, D-Plant City, said. "As soon as we hear from him, we will finish it up."

HARTLEY was subpoenaed earlier to testify at a legislative hearing, but was not called. Another committee spokesman said although Hartley was not issued another subpoena for the upcoming meeting, the first one was "never withdrawn."

"By all standards he is still under subpoena," the spokesman said.

Although Redman said he did not expect prosecution to result from the investigation, he "couldn't say" whether the University or State Department of Education would be reprimanded.

The investigation was sparked by contractor Art Maynor who was unsuccessful low bidder on the project. The contract was awarded to Resource, Inc. which had already started work before bidding opened.

DURING the hearing, Resource officials said the company began work under authorization from State Department of Education personnel. Redman then said the procedure showed "a lot of stupidity."

Redman said the committee will prepare a report to be submitted to House Speaker Terrell Sessums, D-Tampa, and Senate President Mallory Horne, D-Tallahassee. He said he is uncertain what the legislature will do, but said Sessums and Horne have requested the report.

"They asked for it," Redman said. "That's why we are investigating it."

The meeting will take place Oct. 31 in the Capitol Building in Tallahassee.

Peterson Takes Over 'Gate Case

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The administration yesterday returned prosecution of the Watergate case to Assistant Attorney General Henry E. Petersen, who once expressed anger that he had been taken off it in the first place.

Acting Attorney General Robert H. Bork, who finally fired special prosecutor Archibald Cox Saturday night after his two bosses would not, told reporters Petersen would have "direct charge of the Watergate case and all related matters. . . ." Refusing to answer reporters' questions, Bork said Petersen "will use the evidence and the staff already assembled as well as other department personnel to see that these cases are pressed to a conclusion and that justice is done."

Ceasefire

(UPI)—Egypt and Israel ordered their troops to cease firing at 12:50 p.m. EDT yesterday under a superpower settlement arranged by the United States and the Soviet Union. But fighting continued long afterward on Israel's Syrian and Egyptian fronts.

The Israeli military command said some Egyptian artillery batteries kept firing after the truce deadline and that later, "Egyptian forces opened fire on Israeli forces in numerous places along the cease-fire line."

71,000 Telegrams

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Western Union reported yesterday that a record 71,000 telegrams were received in its Washington office about the firing of Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox in the first 36 hours after his dismissal Saturday under President Nixon's order.

A company spokesman, Jim Foster, said that as of mid-morning yesterday, 50,000 of the messages had been delivered to

Impeachment

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Speaker Carl Albert met with other House Democratic leaders and was expected to recommend that the Judiciary Committee begin an inquiry to determine whether there are grounds to proceed with impeachment against President Nixon.

Sources said Albert would announce his recommendation for a Judiciary Committee inquiry when he holds a news conference today.

Auto Strike

DETROIT (UPI)—The United Auto Workers yesterday set a 10

a.m. Friday strike deadline at Ford Motor Co., the nation's second largest automaker. The union and company imposed a news blackout on the contract talks, but before it began top negotiators agreed the 94 hours between the strike notice and the deadline was ample time to avoid a production-crippling strike by 185,000 unionized Ford workers.

Casals Dies

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UPI) Pablo Casals, 96, the world's most renowned cellist who became a symbol of opposition to dictatorships in the 34 years since he exiled himself from his native Spain, died yesterday of complications from a heart attack.

Casals, one of the 20th Century's greatest musicians and conductors, died of massive lung, kidney, circulatory and heart complications which developed from a heart attack suffered in September.

Vietnam Fighting

SAIGON (UPI) The Saigon command said yesterday a total of 48,151 Vietnamese, including more than 10,000 government soldiers, have been killed since last Jan. 28, when peace in Vietnam was declared and the United States withdrew its troops.

The chances for peace here took another small step backward as South Vietnam walked out of a truce meeting with the Viet Cong because the Communist delegate spoke for more than his allotted half hour.

Chiles To Introduce Bill Creating Watergate Office

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla., yesterday announced he will introduce legislation to create a new, independent special Watergate prosecution office.

A spokesman said Chiles, in Florida for the holidays, was preparing a bill to introduce today that would give the new investigation the "same depth and scope" as that of fired Special Prosecutor Archibald Cox.

Chiles, in a statement issued through his Capitol office, also said he was in favor of disbanding the Senate Watergate Committee, so that all phases of the investigation would be placed under the same proposed new special prosecution office.

Fla. Probe

MIAMI (UPI) — A Florida investigation of key Watergate figures may be renewed if a new federal prosecutor is not appointed soon by the President, State Attorney Richard Gerstein said yesterday.

Gerstein announced last June he planned to probe the "Florida connection" with the Watergate break-in and incidents of political espionage he said may have taken place during the conventions on Miami Beach in 1972.

Gerstein said he had promised former special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox that he would delay his own investigation until Dec. 5, the date the Watergate Grand Jury is scheduled to disband in Washington.

Gerstein said yesterday he no longer felt bound to delay his own investigation.

AFL-CIO

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Delegates to the AFL-CIO convention shouted thunderous approval yesterday to a resolution demanding that President Nixon resign or be impeached for defying court orders to turn over the White House Watergate tapes.

"We believe that the American people have had enough, more than enough," AFL-CIO President George Meany said in reading the resolution to the convention.

The demand for Nixon to leave office was coupled with a call for Congress to withhold action on the President's nomination of Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan as Vice President until settlement of the question of whether Nixon himself will remain in office.

'Nixon Must Go'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Flambeau, Florida State University student newspaper, called yesterday for impeachment of President Nixon.

"Nixon must go," the newspaper said in yesterday's edition, adding that the President has "ousted the only three men that thinking Americans respected in high government."

The action, said the daily, "smacks of dictatorship."

Meanwhile, Sandi Shartzter, editorial page editor of the student newspaper, said that a group of student activists are planning an "Impeach Nixon" rally on the FSU campus.

It is tentatively set for noon tomorrow, she said, but formal plans are to be formalized at a meeting tonight.

Equal Rights

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — The AFL-CIO yesterday endorsed the Equal Rights Amendment for women and urged its state affiliates to push for approval of the constitutional amendment by state legislatures.

The labor federation's convention adopted a resolution saying the ERA was "precisely the kind of clear statement of national commitment to the principle of equality of the sexes under the law that working women and their unions can use to advantage in their efforts to eliminate employment discrimination against women."

The AFL-CIO estimated that some 33 million women workers make up about 38 per cent of the nation's work force, and that 22 per cent of heads of households are women.

Field Inadequate State Official Says

MIKE ARCHER
Oracle Staff Staff Writer

A State Department of Pollution Control official yesterday said the sewage spray field across from USF's main entrance on Fowler Avenue sprays "more than twice as much" water on its 32-acre tract than it should.

Deputy Executive Director Hamilton Oven said the State Department of Pollution Control is working on a set of rules governing the amount of sewage that can be safely sprayed over land.

"AT THIS point, we don't have a definite regulation on spray irrigation," Oven said. "So the operation on Fowler is legal right now, but as soon as we get a policy established they'll have to double the land on that field."

Oven said state standards would be based on at least 60 acres of spray field per million gallons per day of sewage.

"This is the absolute minimum we need to protect ground water and local wells from excess nitrogen," Oven said.

"At this point, we don't have a definite regulation on spray irrigation."

—Hamilton Oven

MIKE SMILEY, who runs the city-built spray field, said that roughly one million gallons per day of treated sewage is sprayed through 3,000 sprinklers over 32 acres adjacent to USF.

Oven said this volume of treated sewage sprayed on the tract could possibly contaminate local shallow wells with nitrogen which, he said, could poison the red blood cells of infants drinking area well water.

He said a disease known as methemoglobinemia sometimes results from drinking high nitrogen water that "effects the oxygen-carrying capacity of red blood cells in infants."

SMILEY SAID the city plans to expand the field, but that "right now we've got to work with what we have." He said the field should be at least 80 acres, but the sandy soil around the field keeps the sewage draining fast enough to prevent build-ups.

He said 27 acres have been planted with Argentina Bahia, St. Augustine and Bermuda grass to help filter nitrogen from the sewage. Several "monitor wells" ring the field where ground water is tested for excess nitrogen weekly.

City Water Resources Coordinator Dale Twachtman said the city plans to add another million gallons per day to the sewage plant and also additional land to meet future state requirements.

"WE ARE considering expansion," Twachtman said, "but whatever we do will depend on what we learn can best accommodate the volume of effluent."

He said in six months "when the plant gets going," the city will run efficiency tests on the field to determine whether or not to continue spraying.

Prof's $1 Million Lawsuit Said 'Awaiting Response'

Dr. Kenneth Megill, ex-University of Florida (UF) philosophy professor, said last night he is "waiting for additional response" in his $1 million lawsuit against the Board of Regents (BOR), acting UF Pres. E.T. York and former UF Pres. Stephen O'Connell.

Megill, state chairman of the American Federation of Teacher AFL-CIO (AFT), said he was fired as a result of his union activity. He said he believes being a Marxist was not directly related to his dismissal.

"I don't know that my being a Marxist had a lot to do with it. There are a lot of Marxists teaching all over the country," Megill said. "A peculiar set of things came together in my situation and became symbolic."

Megill's lawsuit asks $500,000 for himself and $500,000 for the AFT. But he said his major request is to be reinstated at UF.

"I mostly want my job back," Megill said.

Megill said the lawsuit is an "AFT case," but noted he did not originally want to take the case to court. He said he listed O'Connell, York and the BOR as defendants because legal aides advised him to name "everybody involved."

"It's all tied up in the legal process," Megill said. "That's not where I like to see it."

Oracle Gets ACP Award

For the seventh straight year, the Oracle has been awarded the All-American rating in the annual judging of collegiate newspapers conducted by the Associated Collegiate Press.

The Oracle received "Marks of Distinction," in all five categories judged. The categories were: coverage and content, writing and editing, editorial leadership, physical appearance, and photography.

Robert Fiallo, now a graduate student in journalism at the University of South Carolina, was the Oracle editor during the period of judging. Present editor, Laurel T. Beeman, was managing editor at that time.

Last spring, the Oracle was named the best student newspaper in the Southeast by Sigma Delta Chi, the national professional journalism society. The American Newspaper Publishers Association twice in the past designated the Oracle as the top collegiate newspaper in the nation.

Impeachment Without Honor

Many Americans have had enough. Others have had too much but feel impeachment would make things worse.

Impeachment is a strong reaction but it is the only rational choice. Time and time again President Nixon has had the power and the opportunity to take steps to resolve national problems. It is highly unlikely he will break his precedent of inept action. Resignation would be best for the country but is not probable.

IT IS NOT the threat of impeachment that brings a crisis; it is the President's contempt for our laws, our judiciary and our balance of powers.

Editorials & Commentary

Nixon has failed to cooperate with the judiciary—insisting on having his own way like a spoiled child.

Even if the tapes prove him not guilty, his erratic behavior raises questions about his judgment. The people have lost trust in his leadership—the very same people who gave him his historical landslide.

HIS ADMINISTRATION has lied to the American people long enough. There is no need for more broken promises. Additional deceit by the executive branch should not be tolerated.

However, Congressmen dodge controversial issues until voters demand action. The time has come. Each person has a responsibility to express his or her opinion on this serious subject. The presidency is not too sacred to come under constitutional fire; the impeachment powers were written to provide for situations like this.

America can overcome corruption, but the concern and unity of the people is needed. The names of the House of Representative members from Florida and their Washington addresses are supplied so each reader can take part and have a voice in the democratic process. ## Presidents' Council Seeks 'Uniform' CLEP Policy

TALLAHASSEE—The Council of Presidents yesterday voted to draw up a statewide policy governing College Level Examination Programs (CLEP) and agreed to appoint a group to interpret the Board of Regents (BOR) new outside employment policy.

State University System Chancellor Robert Mautz said the CLEP proposal will now go to the BOR for approval. If approved, it will require a uniform policy be adopted by all nine state universities, he said.

Memorial Services Set

Memorial services will be held for Dr. Robert Zetler, former professor of English, Friday at 2 p.m. at the University Chapel Fellowship.

Zetler, who died Aug. 26, was the first chairman of the English Department and associate dean of Language-Literature when it was a division.

Russell Cooper, assistant to the vice president for Academic Affairs, and Dr. Elton Smith will speak at the services.

"THE POLICY simply says there will be a uniform policy," Mautz said. "It will be system-wide."

The presidents also agreed to begin interpretation of the outside employment policy adopted in July. The new policy eliminates the one day per week limitation previously imposed and places the employment "at the discretion of the president."

In other business, the council discussed a "fringe benefit package" adopted by Commissioner of Education Floyd Christian. Mautz said the package will grant $18 per month in major medical insurance for each state university employee.

MAUTZ SAID his office has been working on fringe benefit possibilities for about two years. All proposed benefits must receive legislative approval.

"It is now moving toward the legislature," Mautz said. "We have been making a very determined effort to get fringe benefits of some consequence for faculty members."

Cuban Play Presents 'Tremendous Challenge'

DAVID RUTMAN
Oracle Staff Writer

"It's a tremendous challenge to actors," said Theatre Arts Department Chairman Herbert Shore, describing the presentation of the play "The Night of the Assassin."

"I like it. It's very exciting and contemporary, it applies to our lives," said Shore, who directs the show.

THE PLAY by Cuban playwright Jose Triana concerns three children, who keep trying through ritual to kill their parents. "The Night of the Assassin" blends comedy and terror, make believe and frightening reality.

"It's really about oppression and tyranny and what they do about it," Shore commented.

"If you live under tyranny you have to have the guts to do something about it or you make your own prisons."

"THE NIGHT of the Assassin" will be presented by the Theatre for New Repertory in the

Herb Shore

University Theatre Thursday through Saturday at 8:30 p.m. with a Saturday matinee at 2:30 p.m.

The cast and design crew are Mike Leighton, Joey Argenio and Cris Trogue as the three children; Tandovia Jade Eecenia is the student set designer; faculty costumer is John Schultdt with student assistant Cara Varnell; and Robert Wolff is faculty lighting designer.

The play replaces "Taming of the Shrew" scheduled for Oct. 19 through 21 and 23 through 27, which has been cancelled.

THE SHAKESPEAREAN play was cancelled, explained Shore, because they didn't have enough time to assemble a cast and prepare the show in three weeks. Instead, the members of the repertory company and Shore got together and decided to do "The Night of the Assassin."

The non-realistic play is difficult for actors because it takes place on three or four levels and the three actors wind up playing 14 changing characters, Shore said.

Due to special requirements for the production, seating will be limited to 150 unreserved seats. Both the audience and the play will be located on the stage of the University Theatre.

Tickets are priced at $1 for USF students and are available from the Theatre Box Office, ext. 2323.

Cuba Lit Symposium To Augment Play

Two afternoon programs on Cuban literature will be presented in conjunction with the Theatre Arts Department's production of "The Night of the Assassin," the first play by a Cuban playwright to be performed at USF.

A joint symposium offered by the Modern Foreign Languages and Theatre Arts Departments entitled "Cuban Theatre in its Historic-Literary Perspective" will be presented Wednesday from 2 to 3 p.m. in LAN 115.

THE TOPICS of presentation will be:

"Mariano Brull and the Promulgation of Incoherence" by Cleon W. Capsas;

"Nicholas Guillen and the Social Origins of Black Poetry" by James C. Tatum;

'Fillmore:' A Fascinating 'Rockumentary'

Reviewed By
DAVID RUTMAN
Oracle Staff Writer

When rock music promoter Bill Graham decided to close down his "Fillmore-East" and "Fillmore-West" rock palaces, the major portion of the contemporary music world was saddened.

To save a piece of the Fillmore, at least on film, director Richard Heffron chose to film the last few days of the Fillmore-West and show some of the reasons why Graham was forced to close down.

WHAT RESULTED from the the filming is a fascinating "rockumentary" film, on the level of "Gimme Shelter" by the Rolling Stones and "Mad Dogs and Englishmen" by Joe Cocker, et al.

"Fillmore" is a different music movie because of the footage of what Bill Graham had to go through to produce his concerts. A lesser man would have dropped dead from exhaustion long before Graham had to call it quits.

Graham is a tough promoter and it shows. He is filmed haggling on the telephone with groups such as Cold Blood and Boz Scaggs who are arguing over their fees and trivialities such as free tickets. Graham won't take any nonsense and eventually the groups are signed.

WATCHING THIS and other related incidents, you realize that this happened constantly and the drain of continual warfare with rock and roll bands is almost too much to bear. It becomes a losing battle.

films

If the sequences about Graham are fascinating, the greater portion of musical segments can be called undistinguished at best.

The most noticeably disappointing group is Santana, who comes across on film as remarkably mediocre.

AT THE opposite end of the scale, The Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane and It's A Beautiful Day present the finest rock sounds recorded on film since the Rolling Stones filmed Altamount.

Despite some minor disappointments on music, "Fillmore" tends to be an enthralling film about a man and his dream and the death of that dream.

"Fillmore" will be presented today in LAN 103 as part of the Tuesday Night Special Film Series. Showtimes are 8:30 and 10:30 p.m.

'Fun Run' Draws 400-500 Joggers

BY MIKE KASZUBA
Assistant Sports Editor

For those interested in black and white statistics, USF Pres. Cecil Mackey jogged 12 miles, Tampa mayor Dick Greco put in a brief appearance — good for half a mile, and WFLA's disc jockey Jeff Rogo gave it a go for better than two hours.

Mere statistics weren't the bread and butter nor the purpose of Saturday's 12-hour "Run for Fun" according to Physical Education Association (PEA) sponsor, Dr. Chuck Smith.

"THE GOOD thing about the whole run was it wasn't competitive. We didn't set up a certain pace for participants, because that kind of thing isn't conducive to running and having fun," Smith said.

Smith estimated "between 400-500" people were on hand, including a number of elementary and junior high schools.

Rogo, whom Smith said "ran some guest miles," also phoned his station, giving periodic "on the air" reports of his own running accomplishments and interviews with participants.

DESPITE their popularity, Mackey, Rogo and the other personalities were upstaged by some noteworthy individual accomplishments.

"We had a blind boy from Foster Elementary School run a mile with the guidance of an aide," Smith said. "I think he was only a fourth grader."

Terry Wright, PEA coordinator, said teammates from a junior high school logged around 500 miles and added another individual walked 40 miles.

"IT WAS REALLY great. This guy started out walking at 9 a.m. and didn't finish till about 6:30 or 7 p.m."

"He kept moving all the time. The guy would grab his jug of water on the way around and take a drink while he was walking. He also walked under some water spigots to cool himself off, too,...he was really fantastic," she said.

Both Wright and Smith guessed there were between 100-200 people left at the conclusion of the run.

"There were people in and out all day," Wright said.

To this youngster, even a hurdle feels nice

Women Place Well

In just two years of intercollegiate competition, USF's women have made great progress, as was evident this weekend.

For the fifth consecutive time (the first three on a club level) USF captured the Suncoast College Women's Intercollegiate Volleyball Tourney. And playing in only its second badminton meet ever, the Brahmisses placed third in the state championships here.

DESPITE having to stage a dramatic 10-point rally against second place St. Petersburg Junior College, USF coasted to the volleyball title, rolling up five wins without a setback.

The Brahmisses placed three women on the tournament's All-Star team—Jayne MacCall Lauren Scott, and Joanne Rogers.

Today USF is in Winter Park for a four-team scrimmage.

FLORIDA State University (FSU) easily swept to victory in the state badminton championships. The Seminoles' 25 points were nine ahead of runnerup Miami-Dade Community College South and 13 better than USF's total. Palm Beach Junior College was fourth and Jacksonville last.

In singles competition, the Brahmisses finished second to a talented Seminole group. USF's Deanne McDonald placed third and scored nine points on champion Donna Wilson of FSU, the highest total Wilson has surrendered this season.

McDonald and Kathy Jahn paced USF's doubles corps with a victory over the tourney's number two team.

USF Drives To Victory

It was an enjoyable Sunday for USF's Sports Car Club (USFSCC) as it captured five firsts and one runner-up spot in a USFSCC sponsored autocross.

Forty-two cars entered the meet with 16 trophies being awarded, the Brahman club taking top honors.

Craig Pearce was star of the day as he raced to victory in Modified-2 class while recording the fastest time of the autocross, 1:04.008.

Modified-3 belonged to Howard Duncan in his Datsun 510 as John Packer took his Volkswagen to the top in C- Foreign Sedan.

Driving a Gremlin, Bob Thaggard triumphed in A-Trans-Am and Danny Shields was victorious in S-Sports. USF's second place finish was turned in by Danny Barger in B-Foreign Sedan.

Brahmans Evaporate Hurricanes

BY DAVE MOORMANN

Oracle Sports Editor

If USF was looking ahead to its showdown with St. Louis, it sure did a good job of fooling everyone Saturday with an overwhelming 7-0 triumph over Miami.

The Billikens, defending NCAA champs arriving here this Saturday, promise to be one of USF's toughest battles of the season.

BUT THE Brahmans never really experienced a letdown with Miami, recording their second shutout in succession and reaching the seven goal mark for the second time.

"We kinda wore them down,"

Coach Dan Holcomb said of the 7-0 Brahmans. "We were just too quick for them."

In the contest, USF held a slim 2-0 halftime edge. But two second

"We were just too quick for them...We weren't really tested very much against Miami but we'll know how good we are this weekend."

—Dan Holcomb

period goals by Mike Knott and five points in an 11-minute span suddenly turned the game into a rout.

AGAIN St. Louis freshmen Knott and Pete Mohrmann were standouts for USF. Knott increased his team scoring leadership to nine, and Mohrmann tallied twice for his sixth and seventh points.

Sophomore Bill Pecher, collecting his first two goals of the year, rounded out USF's scoring.

Through its first seven games, the Brahmans have outscored their opponents 34-4 while recording four shutouts.

KNOTT is already one goal ahead of George Unanue's team scoring mark of last season and Mohrmann should pass it soon.

This week thoughts won't be on statistics, but rather on beating St. Louis.

The Billikens prevailed in the traditional rivalry last year with a 1-0 double overtime victory. Yet Holcomb is confident.

"WE'VE GOT as good a chance as ever of beating St. Louis this year," Holcomb said. "We can carry the attack to them."

Physically the Brahmans appear sound. Hurting prior to the game with Miami, the players have come along well, explained Holcomb.

Only Fred Sikorski, who suffered a broken nose, was injured against the Hurricanes but trainer Tony Jonaitis said he should be ready for St. Louis.

OUT SINCE preseason with an Achilles heel ailment, halfback Sean O'Brien, is to begin practice this week and may see limited action against St. Louis, according to Holcomb.

"I don't think we'll have anyone that's not at least nearly healthy (aside from Tom Steinbrecher)," explained the Brahman boss.

Holcomb wasn't sure Saturday's victory would catapult them back into the top twenty because "we weren't tested very much against Miami but we'll know how good we are this weekend."

Fellows Is First

Karen Fellows continued her domination of women's bowling, taking both high game (179) and series (503) in last week's USF Bowling League.

Men's top game belonged to Steve McLain with a 233 while Al Rosen rolled 541 for the series title.

Battle Of The Giants

Tampa Mayor Dick Greco and USF Pres. Cecil Mackey laugh it up in their judo match which opened the Taizo Sone Memorial Tourney this weekend. USF's Tom Rigg captured the overall title as well as the 154-lb. divisional crown. Phil Van Treese place third in heavyweight competition.

Fall Contests Show Promise, Problems

A 5-4-3 fall exhibition record is pretty much middle-of-the-road stuff. Small wonder then why USF baseball coach Beefy Wright's comments on his team's performance fall along the same lines.

"I saw a lot of things that I like and some things that I thought could use some improvement," Wright said.

The Brahmans' skipper admitted his team's most glaring problem was "we have no real leadership right now. This isn't a rap against the boys, but just a situation that we hope to iron out by the season's start."

Because he emphasized an informal atmosphere, Wright said he didn't get a chance to work at all with his pitchers in the bullpen and hoped this was the cause of some noticeable problems.
