Crime investigations against a stunning seaside backdrop are at the heart of this new drama series following a high-flying solicitor who returns to live and work in the small town she escaped as a teenager. As a coroner, Jane Kennedy's job is to investigate sudden or unexplained deaths in this beautiful English coastal community. With a new and intriguing case to investigate in each episode, Jane finds herself back in the small town she escaped as a teenager. The new detective sergeant, having to work with old flame Davey Higgins, who as the local detective sergeant, possesses a mysterious and potential danger with the warm, light-hearted tone of Jane's relationships with her colleagues, family and the local community. While Jane is talented and tenacious in seeking justice for the dead, her personal life is a bit more haphazard. Airs Tuesdays at 10 p.m., beginning January 10.
