DANCE AT POOL SATURDAY P.M.

You are welcome to come to the Haloween Dance at the Pool Saturday Oct. 26. Come in costume or not. Price $1 per couple.

finger tip veil of illusion which fell in graceful folds from a heart shaped coronet of lace. The wedding bouquet was white chrysanthemums in the midst of which nestled a corsage of white orchids and valley lillies which Consie removed later to wear with her traveling ensemble.

The P.T.A. Circus at the Pool last night was just what was predicted. It was a WOW!

Consie's attendants were Mrs. Wall Tatnall Thompson, matron of honor; Miss Esther Torres, maid of honor, Miss Mary Regar, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Mary Catherine Mickler, bridesmaids. They wore gowns of faille taffeta, the first two in champagne rose. The basque bodices were cut with sweetheart necklines and softened with shirring. The full skirts were trimmed at the hip lines with three tiers of tiny ruffles which extended across the backs from straight front panels. The frocks were completed with muffs of matching velvet to which were attached sprays of orchid and purple pompom chrysanthemums.

The Girl Scouts attended an open house and Silver Tea given by Troop 4 on Sunday Oct. 20. The Girl Scout Officers are-- Martha Anne Todd-President, Vice Presidaen-Jane Petersen, Secatarary-Patrol Leader and Assistant Scout Ledead-Helen Hawk, Flag Barrer-Joan Ptersen, Color Guards-Sara Dowling and Jean Petersen. BEAUTIFUL TEMPLE TERRACE GIRL WEDS

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the Curetons last Saturday. Consie was married to Jack Regar in the garden in front of the house. The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon just as the westerly sun cast long shadows across the aisle. The bride was attired in white faille taffeta made with an alencon lace yoke and long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the wrists. The princess lines of the gown extended in a long sweeping train. She wore a

They wore heart shaped bonnets of matching velvet. Alonzo Regar, brother of the bridegroom was best man and ushers were Dr. Edward Flynn, Jack Whiteside, Thomas Cureton, Jr., James Dowling and John Montgomery. After the ceremony the wedding guests were entertained at a reception on the north side of the house where a lovely table covered with a lace cloth held a beautiful three tiered wedding cake. Punch and sandwiches were served by friends of the bride.
