11 BICYCLES IN TEMPLE TERRACE

HERE AND THERE

Bob Shearman is visiting the Shermans, for the Christmas Holidays.

The Dowlings went to Bradenton, but they are back now.

My but Hawks sure have a lot of visitors at their house.

Elizabeth Mague is visiting the Mague at the Institute.

Mrs. and Mr. Brock are visiting the Crosses.

Mrs. Bests is going to move from Temple Terrace, for about two months.

The Editor has gone to Tenn. for Christmas and now the Society-Editor has to be in charge of the paper, if any one has any news please phone 73-2777.

Mrs. Goswich's son is home for the Christmas Holiday, he will leave Fri.

The Petersens had Mr. Duffy over for Christmas Dinner.

Smiths had 14 over for Christmas Dinner. Mrs. & Mr. F. M. Harris from Jacksonville, Mrs. & Mr. Herring, Higginbotham and Mrs. Tilly Hummell from Tampa and Fred Audry from Boston.

We hear that Gail Barnaby is married.

Seitz got a new car, and Mrs. Seitz is getting rid of her old car.

There are some beautiful pictures of the celebration of the "burning of the bonds" on display at Allinson's store.

That rainbow streak that is going through Temple Terrace is Frank Smith car.

Mrs. Lockoby is home from the hospital.

The Girl Scout all went together and got Clifford Richardson a big table lamp. Some of the Girl Scouts went caroling Christmas Eve. Their will be a Girl Scout meeting Friday, at 3:00 o'clock.

My but Santa Clause sure did leave a lot of bicycles in Temple Terrace. Even Mrs. Petersen.

Mrs. W. E. Mc Clure of Goldsboro North Carolina, who was now associated with Cragg and Scitz was the Dinner guest on Christmas Day.

Don't forget the New Years Dance at the pool.

Here is a recipe for:

Butter Taffy
3 cups brown sugar
1/2 cups molasses
1/4 cup water
1/4 cup vinegar
4 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Boil sugar, molasses, water and vinegar. When crisp in cold water add butter and cook 3 min. Add vanilla and cool in buttered pans and break into pieces.

Jim Moore, the man that is staying at Mrs. Pochter's house got a job at the Tampa Shipbuilding as a watch man.

The Sentinel wishes every one

HAPPY NEW YEAR
too
