WHERE THE SENTINEL GOES

On Gasparilla Day the Temple Terrace Sentinel was one year old. At first the Sentinel only had a small typewritten sheet. Soon we were putting out copies on a hectograph machine. This machine worked alright for awhile but it started to smearing the copies. By that time we had such a large circulation that it would be impossible to go back to the typewritten sheet. So we got a mimeograph machine. Next we joined the Florida Press Ass'n. July 31, 1940. Our route is 9 miles long. This may seem kind of screwy but it's true, so from Gasparilla Day 1940 to Gasparilla Day 1941 we have traveled approximately as far as it is from Tampa to Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. & Mrs. Jernigan are entertaining 24 guests this evening with a kitchen shower in honor of Mr. & Mrs. Percy Nersey who were recently married. Valentine ideas will be carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

The Hawk's cow, Dolly, had a pretty little calf one day this week. They have named her Daisy Mae. Come up and see her sometime.

Mrs. Harry W. Jackson, nephew of Mrs. VanDeVenter, and his wife have been enjoying a visit with Mrs. VanDeVenter. Before returning to Detroit, they will go to Miami and Key West and return by way of the East Coast.

Some of the girls in Temple Terrace are taking Riding Lessons at the ranch of Mrs. Wayne Thomas near Plant City.

Mrs. Sherman, with her guests Mrs. Standerwick and Miss Hill are on a trip to St. Augustine, Daytona Beach, Miami and Key West.

Be sure and attend the "Animated Magazine" on the grounds of Rollins College, Winter Park, Feb. 23, 2:30 o'clock. There will be many famous people to speak.

The Editor has been sick in bed for the past week.
