P.T.A. MEETING TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY

The regular P.T.A. meeting of the Temple Terrace School will be held on Tuesday March 4th. at 3:15. There will be a social time after the meeting. All mothers and friends are invited. There will be a Founders Day program.

Mrs. Helen Miller, who has been visiting the Shermans, returned to her home in New York City Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemster of Chicago, Mrs. Bregar's mother and father, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bregar. They were here last year and it is good to have them back in Temple Terrace again.

The Tampa Golf Association here in Temple Terrace inspected the Temple Terrace Golf course yesterday and OKed it for the Tampa City Championship to be held on this course. The qualifying will start on March 16th. The tournament will run until March 30th.

The Peninsular Telephone company will hold their annual tournament at the Temple Terrace Golf Course this year. It will start March 1st.

Mrs. Tom Cureton will entertain Friday afternoon 2:30 March 7th. for the British War Relief. 50¢ will be the price. The idea of this is to revive the old Sewing Club only everyone may attend.

The Sentinel wishes to recommend Patsy and Johnny Renick, who are selling the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal, and Blue Bolt Comic books, to the people of Temple Terrace.

Visitors are invited to come to the Boy Scout meetings every Friday night at 7:30 and see what the Scouts are doing.

"Uncle Howard" Sherman has a brand new power mower which he uses on his lot of Italian rye grass. You should see this pretty sight. It really adds to the beauty of Temple Terrace.

We find out that there are several small newspapers of this kind. There is the Flint Lake Diver in Thonotosassa of which Leland Hawes is Editor and the Chipley Bugle of Chipley, Florida whose editor is Jimmie Sellers.

There will be a Temple Terrace Party tomorrow night at 9:30 at the Pool. The price will be $1.50 per couple. The drinks and eats will be served. This is just a Temple Terrace get-together and not a fancy dress party.

Next Wednesday the Ladies' Golf Association will have a luncheon and business meeting.
