Mrs. Jack Tedford, of Blue Grass, Tenn., was sitting by her radio the other day listening to the inauguration of Pres. Roosevelt. The radio man on the job was describing everything. Telling of the Bible, and how it was open at the Thirteenth Chapter of First Corinthians, first verse and how the President would place his hand while taking his oath. Mrs. Tedford reached for her Bible to read the words there, and she made a mistake and turned to Thirteenth Chapter of Second Corinthians, first verse, and, when she read she could hardly believe, because these are the words: "This is the third time I am coming to you".....

It is reported that the Henderson Airport is making progress rapidly.
