THE STUDIO@620 PRESENTS

Cultural Routes: Continuing the Journey

Rachel Stewart and Judith Salmon

“Cultural Routes: Continuing the Journey” is a joint exhibition with artists Rachel Stewart and Judith Salmon. It reflects their individual and intersecting perspectives and experiences across two different cultures—Jamaica and the United States.

Judith Salmon—painter and printmaker and Rachel Stewart—sculptor and mixed media artist, have exhibited together since the 80's. In the ensuing years each artist has deepened her process to create significant bodies of work in a variety of media. Since their first exhibition at The Studio@620 in 2006, they return with new expressions of cultural routes.

On Exhibit November 11–December 3, 2016, Gallery Hours by Appointment

Friday November 11 / 6:00–9:00 PM: Opening Reception

Friday November 11 / 8:00 PM: Artist Conversations with guest moderator Ann Wykell, Art Consultant

Saturday November 12 / 5:00–9:00 PM: Second Saturday Artwalk

Closing Reception Saturday December 3 / 6:00–9:00 PM

Admission is free and open to the public.
