DEFENSE BONDS AND SAVINGS STAMPS may be obtained from the Sentinel. Instead of going into town each week to get them just order them from the Sentinel. Anybody who hasn't already started a book can get one from the Sentinel. Get your stamps as often as possible.

THE SENTINEL was two years old last week.

ATTENTION TEACHERS in Church School. The lesson for Feb. 22 will be that given from May 3rd. which will be The Day of Acclaim. Matt. 11:1-11; Luke 19:41-44.

THE LADIES IN TEMPLE TERRACE who sew in the Red Cross Room each week are made much pleased when they are told that the garments completed by them were considered so well done that they were taken by one of the Red Cross leaders and displayed at the Headquarters of the Red Cross in Tampa and also in the British Relief Organization. The work was highly commended.

THE TEMPLE TERRACE SCHOOL, by the request of the Air Raid wardens, has had a new telephone just installed. This phone was put in for the sole purpose of warning the school of a raid. The number is 73-2731. Please do not call unless it is VERY important.

SPECIAL NOTICE!!! The word has gotten around that Mrs. E. Porter is to have a very special bath given to her by the Home Nursing class at Mrs. Duncan's house this next Tuesday. All you ladies who are interested in Home Nursing PLEASE do not miss the big show Tuesday.

The editor is proud to say that the dozen of large white eggs he put in the Fair won first prize, his three chickens won fifth place, and his calf fourth place. Leland Haven, the editor of the Flint Lake Diver in Thonotassassa, had some very nice paintings in the fair also.

PARENTS OF DANCING PUPILS of Danny Sheehan will be very pleased to know that, beginning Feb. 21st, he will teach his Temple Terrace pupils in the pool, guiding every Saturday afternoon.

All young people interested in taking tap dancing lessons are requested to meet at the pool this Saturday at two o'clock when Mr. Sheehan will arrange classes, schedules, and rates.

Saturday, Feb. 21st there will be another dance for the young people of the community. Danny will be at the party when it starts so try to be on time-7:30 P.M.

Refreshments will be served and the juke organ is working so all should have a good time.

FRESH GRADE "A" EGGS. LARGE WHITE. THE KIND THAT WON THE FIRST PRIZE AT THE FAIR. JUST 40¢ per doz. THESE EGGS ARE CALDLED AND GRADED. phone 73-2624
