IMPORTANT NOTICE: Do you want homestead tax exemption on your homestead in Temple Terrace? If so, you must file application with Mrs. Van deVenter before April 1st. This must be done each year.

CORRECTION NO. 2 regarding qualification for voting in Temple Terrace.
We failed to state that one must be a resident of the state of Fla. for one year, as well as a resident of Temple Terrace for six months previous to the election. In general the requirements for voting in the city of Temple Terrace are the same as the requirements for voting in the county elections. But you do not have to register in the county to be qualified to vote in the city of Temple Terrace. But of course you must register in the city of Temple Terrace to be able to vote in Temple Terrace elections.

UNLUCKY FRIDAY 13th? At the last Bunco party the 13s had quite a hand in the game. To begin with the date was Friday the 13th. Then there were 13 tables, there were 13 adults present, and the winning number was 13.

CHILDRENS' PARTY will be held this Saturday (Mch. 21). Danney Sheehan will be there to teach the children. Refreshments.

Arthur Cox, Bobby Wehman, George West, John Perry, Leo Davis of Troop 50 went up for several Merit Badges.
Bobby Wehman and George West went up for Life scout award. Troop 50 won the banner for having won the attendance award the most during 1941. You are all urged to come to these Courts of Honor every 3rd Wednesday in the month at the Riverview Terrace in Sulphur Springs.

Mrs. Bruce McCampbell, aunt of the editor, will leave for her home in Knoxville, Tenn. Saturday by plane.

The Sentinel has applied for a membersip in the American Amateur Press Association. The AAPA is a organization of writers, editors, publishers, and printers all over America. The Sentinel already is a member of the Florida Boy Editors Newspaper Exchange (an organization of papers like the Sentinel all over Fla.), and the Florida Press Assn.

Mrs. Dowling's mother, Mrs. H. B.
Minimum of Tallahassee, is visiting the Dowlings.

There were 8 ladies who worked in the Red Cross sewing room Thursday and they completed 9 light blue outing flannel combination suits, 2 green rompers, 1 tailored coat for 10 year old girl. A number of the ladies were kept from sewing in the sewing room Thursday because of colds. Next Thursday it is hoped everyone will be feeling well again and come to help do her part in this work. Bring your sandwich 10 o'clock at the Tower Room of the Recreation Building.

It sure is nice to see all of the Defense gardens in Temple Terrace.
What with all of the gardens and plowed fields Temple Terrace is looking very "farmy".

Mr. O. H. Whitman sold the residence on Mission Hills ave to Mr. and Mrs. Chas Strohmeier.
