The Allinsons have visitors. They are Mr. Allinson's daughter, Mrs. M.W. Orr and her daughter, Virginia. They are from Philladelphia. They have been visiting the Allinsons about a week. They will stay a month.

Mrs. T.C. Cross has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Carlton Wright of Chattanooga for the past two weeks. Mary Katherine joined her for the last week's visit. They returned Monday and brought home with them Joy Wright, Mrs. Cross' niece, who will spend sometime visiting the Cross family.

The Childrens' Dance will be held Saturday night at the Pool.

Wednesday night July 15 there will be a pound prom at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Bass Richardson for all children in Temple Terrace. 8 to 12 o'clock.

Mrs. Dowling announced today that Mrs. McCartney, Mrs. Seitz, and herself have collected $31.85 for the U.S.O. She also stated that anyone who had not given or wished to give again to notify her. The U.S.O. goal has not yet been reached. Do your part: give to the U.S.O.

Mrs. Duncan, Eilly, Betty, and Katherine has gone to New York City and New Britian, Conn. They will visit Mr. Macauley at New Britian.

The Boy Scouts of the Flying Eagle Patrol Troop 50 wish to thank everybody that gave to the scrap metal drive, the Temple Terrace City truck that hauled the metal, and to the Security Feed Co. truck that hauled the scrap to town. The boys made $4.80 on the scrap and plan to make about $4.00 more on some 800 coat hangers that were given. If there is enough more scrap in the next few weeks, we will collect it again.

The Temple Terrace Church School will be held this Sunday. Mr. Seitz will teach the lesson. The topic will be: "Temptation and Sin."

The Sentinel has sold to date $123.60 worth of War Savings Stamps. If you want a large amount, please let the editor know ahead of time. Do your part. Buy a stamp and lick the other side.

Adv. "Fresh Grade "A" large white eggs. Canded and graded for your safety. 40¢ per dozen. Phone 73-2624.

Girl Scouts will register with Mrs. Richardson the first week in August.

The next First Aid Class will be on Monday July 13. The next after that will be Thursday the 16th. Be sure to attend these splendid classes taught by Dr. Duncan. It will really be worth your time.
