THRIFT WEEK ⑭

*WRAP-UP ⑤

Thrift Week is over and everyone is back to pinching pennies. But from January 17-24, The Activities Office offered some real (and unusual) bargains.

National Thrift Week commemorates Ben Franklin's birthday on Jan. 17 and was kicked off by a FREE Sock Hop with live music. The event was co-sponsored by the Student Education Association and St. Pete Alumni Chapter. And old and new friends got together over some free beer, pretzels, and popcorn.

During the week, an Old-Fashioned Bargain Counter was set-up at the Activities Desk and oranges, apples, candy, cookies, etc. were sold for a mere pittance. Patrons could also take a chance on winning a 5 lb. bag of sugar (won by Pat Hitchens), a piggy bank (won by Phyllis Legrange), and a food basket (won by Dave Walker). A high-light of Thrift Week was the Soup Kitchen on Wednesday, featuring tomato soup and crackers for only 5¢.

Orders were also taken for free trees to be distributed by the Chamber of Commerce on Planting Day, Feb. 8 as a community beautification project.

Many thanks to the Bookstore for their special Thrift Week bargains and to the Snack Bar for their fine cooperation.

Thrift Week ended, appropriately, on the anniversary of the discovery of gold in California--with a free Chaplin film, THE GOLD RUSH.
