FRIDAY NOV. 20, 1942

John Perry,
Editor

Johnny Renick,
Reporter

Word has been received that Mr. Jernigan's father died at 11 o'clock Tuesday night near Pensacola and was buried at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Melton, Florida.

Mr. Schanz' horse, Sunny Boy, was found after he had been lost for several days. He was now home safe and sound.

The Sentinel will again issue a Special Christmas issue this year. It will be a Mail-Away as well as a Christmas Special. More later.

Billy and Dr. Duncan left Thursday night for north Florida on one of their hunting trips. We wish them good luck.

Mr. Marcus T. Petersen returned home Tuesday after a five week stay in the hospital. He is much better and plans to go to work today or tomorrow. We're glad to have you back, Mr. Petersen.

Temple Terrace Church School will be held this Sunday at the Recreation Building at 10:30 A.M. Everyone is welcome.

LOST:: Last Friday between Dowling's and the Temple Terrace Filling Station, one shoe with orange inner lining. If found phone the editor.

The Red Cross Sewing Room will be open next week on Wednesday instead of Thursday (THANKSGIVING DAY).

When President Roosevelt proclaimed the 26th of November to be Thanksgiving this year he also proclaimed it a day of prayer as well as Thanksgiving. It certainly wouldn't hurt to observe next Thursday as he suggested. What with all of our recent military and naval victories lately, we perhaps have a tendency to relax and slow down. This must not happen. Instead of sitting back and gloating over the successes of the Marines and Navy in the Solomons, the second front in Africa, and the rescue of Rickenbacker, we should pray for more such good fortune. It's going to take plenty of it before this war is won. As you sit down at your Thanksgiving dinner Thursday, stop just a minute to offer a prayer of thanks for our recent blessings and for those to come.
