Reporter

Frank Smith will leave for the Navy on Jan. 18. He will go to Norfolk, Va. The Sentinel wishes him good luck.

The T.T.T. Club entertained Thursday evening with a farewell supper party at the home of the Dowlings in the honor of the two Temple Terrace boys, Bob Petersen who leaves Friday for the Army, and Frank Smith who has joined the Navy and leaves Jan. 18 for Norfolk Virginia. Good luck to both.

The Temple Terrace Church School will be held this Sunday at 10:30 o'clock in the Recreation Building. Mrs. Julian Dowling will teach the adult class. The subject will be: "Jesus Instructs a Great Teacher". Special music: Duet by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Renick. Every body is welcomed.

Mrs. Helen G. Renick has as her guest, Mrs. Armour Taylor. We are glad to have her in Temple Terrace.

Mrs. Bruce R. McCampbell of Knoxville, Tennessee, sister of Mrs. J. Lawrence Perry, and her daughter - in - law, Mrs. Bruce R. McCampbell, Jr. with her 11 months old daughter, Mary Faye, will be the guests of the Perrys. They will arrive Saturday. Lt. j.g. Bruce R. McCampbell, Jr. is a doctor in the U.S. Navy on the destroyer U.S.S. Mugford in the South Pacific.

There were six ladies working in the Red Cross Sewing room in Temple Terrace Thursday. There is plenty of sewing to be done for the Red Cross. Certainly some of you ladies of Temple Terrace have sons or relatives over seas! Those men need badly what the Red Cross is striving to make and send over. I don't think any of you would want your son or relative to go without some surgical dressings when it may mean his life, or some doctor to go without an operation gown which they need so badly, or for some Marine in a fox hole on the Solomon Islands to have to do without a kit-bag (items desperately needed by the soldiers which the Army doesn't supply are in these kits. Maybe you can't go to town to make these things for the Red Cross, but you can sew such items as baby dresses, childrens' wool clothes, hospital gowns, doctors' operating gowns, etc. in the Temple Terrace Red Cross Sewing room. These articles are needed by refugees. The people of France, Greece, China need these kind of clothing. If you can't make them for a soldier, make them for a civilian. Either way you will be doing your part.

Mrs. T. C. Cross is in Miami visiting her son, Joe. B. Mickler, and his wife, Mrs. Joe B. Mickler, and their new son.

Billy Duncan, left for school in Georgia last week. We are all going to miss him. The Sentinel wishes him the best of luck in his new school.
