STUDENT ASSOCIATION NEWS:

The Community Relations Committee has been working on a slide presentation to be shown to various community organizations. The production of the show is being handled by Denise Nichol森 and you may be a STAR. So if you see a camera lens staring you in the face, grin and bear it.

The Executive Committee has selected Mrs. Janice Taylor as Editor of the Crow's Nest.

The Constitution Committee has submitted its revised Constitution. It will be ready for ratification the first week of Quarter II.

An opinion poll is being circulated to the students concerning evaluation of all faculty and courses.

A Student Handbook is in the making. We hope to have it ready for next quarter.
