The USF St. Petersburg College of Business presents the Third Annual Executive Forum Tuesday, Oct. 23 at Harbor Hall Gallery. The forum, free and open to the public, will feature top business leaders in three focused sessions on leadership, health care and sustainability.

The leadership session features Lisa Huetteman, author of The Value of Core Values: Five Keys to Achieving Success through Values-Centered Leadership, at 11 a.m.

The health care session features Dr. Jonathan Ellen, president of All Children's Hospital, and Dr. Carmella Sebastian, Senior Medical Director of Clinical Client Solutions at Florida Blue, at 2 p.m.

The sustainability session features Giselle Weybrecht, author of The Sustainable MBA: The Managers Guide to Green Business, at 6 p.m.

The forum is sponsored by the USFSP College of Business, Walgreens, SunTrust and the DW Group.

“We are excited to gather top executives together to discuss some of the pressing issues of the day,” said Maling Ebrahimpour, dean of the College of Business. “This is a great example of the kind of collaboration and community engagement that distinguishes the College of Business.”

Harbor Hall (the former Dali Museum) is at 1000 3rd St South, St. Petersburg, FL. For more information or to reserve your spot at the forum, call (727) 873-4700.
