Lt. Ernie Hawk, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Hawk, has returned home after having been wounded in North Africa. Ernie was reported dead at first. Then the Hawks learned he was wounded. He has been in the government hospital in Memphis, Tenn. where he underwent a serious operation. We certainly are glad to know that you are back home again, Ernie!

The Temple Terrace Church School will be held this Sunday at 10:30 A.M. The Rev. Reginald Sales, former missionary, will teach the adult class. There will be classes for all ages. Bring the whole family. Everyone is welcome. The Temple Terrace Church School is non-denominational.

Mrs. Simpson, principal of the Temple Terrace School, reports that about 20 of her pupils are out with the flu. Almost everybody has had some sort of cold this winter. We certainly hope all of you who have it recover soon.

The soldiers at Hillsborough A.A.F. have bought drape material for the windows of their day room. The ladies of T.T. under Mrs. Cross started to work on them today.
