TOM, JR.

Miss Mary Lou Olsen of Tampa is engaged to Mr. Tom Sureton, Jr. of Temple Terrace. Congratulations!

Mrs. Carl Cross, whose husband was killed in England, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T.C. Cross.

a Scottie. She may even run against "Falla" in the '44 election.

The Tribune published an article the otherday about one of our own heroes. He is Willes Massey, a former Temple Terrace School pupil. During the holidays he had the very grave misfortune to shoot off his thumb in a hunting accident. Although he missed his own Christmas with his family, he decided to take his savings and Christmas money and buy war Bonds. He stated that now "he knew how it felt to be shot." Willes, we ~~ally~~ wish you could also know how it feels to be decorated. You deserve a medal too.

BACK AGAIN ---OFF AGAIN

J.C. Nelms of Temple Terrace returned from overseas last week on furlough after seeing considerable action, but he is off again. Good Luck!

Lt. Erwin left before the holidays for Washington and will be gone about two months. Mrs. Erwin and her baby daughter are remaining in Temple Terrace.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Mrs. Ashley took the troop on a very delightful hike last Friday--only one casualty: Anne Thomson who broke her glasses. The girl scouts recently changed mascots. "Junior" proved to be a "boy scout". The new mascot, Bonnie, sits up at "attention" and sits down when given "at ease". Incidentally she is
