

USFSP News Center »

USF St. Petersburg alumna Paige Railey wins gold at World Cup

Posted February 4, 2013 at 11:15 am by Tom Scherberger

Olympian and USFSP grad Paige Railey

USF St. Petersburg alumna Paige Railey of Clearwater, won a gold medal in the Olympic class event “Laser Radial” sailing during the ISAF Sailing World Cup in Miami last week. It is was the same one-person boat in which Railey competed at the 2012 Olympic Games.

Railey was awarded a Business Management degree in December 2010.

Railey ('10) is a member of US Sailing Team Sperry Top-Sider, the national team comprised of the top athletes competing in Olympic and Paralympic class sailing. The regatta concluded Feb. 2 and Team USA took home 13 medals.

Related News

Posted in:

Alumni Stories

USFSP News

Tags:

Alumni