ST. PETERSBURG CAMPUS

January 8, 1970

W E L C O M E !

Welcome back to the University of South Florida's St. Petersburg Campus, all students, faculty and staff.

And a special welcome and hello to the twenty-two Natural Science majors and their advisors from Muskingum College in New Concord, Ohio. These students are presently utilizing USFSP's facilities for marine research during the month of January.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

the FREE USF Student Directories in the Lobby of Building A?

the Xerox machine in the Library?

the new paperbacks in the Bookstore?

the cold in Building A? (Resulting when a new 1970 boiler is added to 1947 pipes causing the latter to burst)?

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The first course in the new program for a Masters Degree in Business Administration is now being offered on USFSP.

 THE BATTLE OF ALGIERS *****

Tuesday, January 13
1:00 P.M.
8:30 P.M.
Room 223 A

THE BATTLE OF ALGIERS will be presented FREE to the students of USF's St. Petersburg Campus next Tuesday. The film is the first of a series of film classics to be shown on campus during Quarter II. The Italian made movie is the well-deserved winner of eleven international awards, including the Golden Lion (best picture) at the Venice Film Festival. THE BATTLE OF ALGIERS is a stunning and starkly re-enactment of the rebellion against France between 1954 and 1957. "An uncommonly dynamic picture..."--Bosley Crowther, NEW YORK TIMES. The film series is being presented in conjunction with the Student Activities Council.
