PROFESSORS DISCUSS HOW MODERN FICTION DEPICTS FLORIDA

Drs. Julie Buckner Armstrong and Thomas Hallock, professors of English at USF St. Petersburg, were recently interviewed by Robin Sussingham on WUSF's Florida Matters about the ways in which Florida has been represented in literature in recent years. They discussed several works, including "Fates and Furies" by Lauren Groff and "The Yonahlossee Riding Camp for Girls" by Anton DiSclafani.
