Inland Bird Banding Association

Annual Meeting of the Inland Bird Banding Association 9-12 September 1999

The annual meeting of the Inland Bird Banding Association (IBBA) will be held at Forest Lake Camp, Ottumwa, Iowa, in conjunction with meetings of the Association of Field Ornithologists (AFO), North American Banding Council (NABC), and Iowa Ornithologists Union (IOU) at Forest Lake Camp near Ottumwa, Iowa, from 9-12 Sep 1999. It will be hosted by the Ottumwa Bird Club, assisted by members of the Lake Rathbun Bird Club. Fall migration will be well underway and a full schedule of field trips, workshops, and scientific paper sessions will provide great opportunities for all who attend. Other activities at Forest Lake Camp include canoeing (no charge for canoe use!) and hiking along forest trails.

The major focus of this meeting will be on the training and certification of bird banders, and banders from throughout North America are invited to participate. This will include a trial run of North American Banding Council (NABC) evaluation procedures as well as bander training workshops. We are anxious to have contributed papers that deal with banding techniques or the results of studies involving bird banding. Scientific paper sessions will also be open to contributed papers based on original research on any aspect of field ornithology.

Members are encouraged to register early for the meeting so that facilities and trips can be planned accordingly. The registration fee will be $15 for those registering prior to 1 Aug 1999 and $20 thereafter. For information from the local committee about local accommodations and arrangements for the meeting, please contact: Darleen J. Ayres, 1 Pennsylvania Place, # 007, Ottumwa, IA 52501;

phone: (515) 682-1697.

Field trips are scheduled for 10-12 Sep 1999 to Lake Rathbun, Lake Wapello, Shimek State Forest at Keosauqua, and Pioneer Ridge. These will be led by members of the Ottumwa Bird Club and Lake Rathbun Bird Club. Shorebird habitat is somewhat limited, but woodland birds will be in the area in abundance. Birding habitats at Lake Rathbun include shore, water, woodlands, open fields, and roadsides. Lake Wapello is a small lake surrounded by woodlands and open fields. This field trip will also take in roadsides and lagoons in Ottumwa. Shimek State forest includes woodlands, Des Moines River bottomlands, roadsides, and open fields. Pioneer Ridge Conservation Park includes woodlands, two ponds, open fields, and roadsides. Field trips will leave from both the Days Inn Motel and Forest Lake Camp. Check schedule and sign-up lists upon arrival.

Scientific paper sessions will be held on Fri, 10 Sep, and Sat, 11 Sep 1999 at the Days Inn Motel. Transportation between Forest Lake Camp and the Days Inn Motel will be provided on an hourly schedule.

Business meetings of the Inland Bird Banding Association, Association of Field Ornithologists, Iowa Ornithologists Union, and North American Banding Council will be held separately and at different times on Sat, 11 Sep, and Sun, 12 Sep 1999, to allow members of multiple organizations to attend all meetings. Meeting times and places will be announced/posted at registration.

Bander certification and banding workshops will be held at Forest Lake Camp. Transportation between Forest Lake Camp and the Days Inn Motel will be provided on an hourly schedule. For several years, representatives of major bird banding and ornithological organizations, as well as U.S. and Canadian government wildlife agencies, have been discussing the need for better and more uniformly trained bird banders. Meeting under the umbrella of the North American Banding Council, these representatives have been preparing bander training manuals and working on a process of certification. This special AFO/IBBA/IOU meeting will be a trial run using these materials. We are seeking 15 licensed bird banders who are willing to go through the evaluation process for certification. These 15 banders will receive preliminary copies of NABC training manuals about a month prior to the meeting. Those interested in being considered for this first bander certification class must already be licensed banders and must submit a letter of application by 15 Jul 1999, stating the length and nature of their banding experience to: Jerome A. Jackson, Whitaker Center, College of Arts and Sciences, Florida Gulf Coast University, 10501 FGCU Blvd. South, Ft. Myers, FL 33965-6565; e-mail: picus@fgcu.edu; FAX: 941-590-7200.

Candidates for certification should plan to arrive by Wed afternoon, 8 Sep 1999, and should bring their own banding equipment (pliers, wing measures, etc.). Candidates will be given the written exam (multiple choice/short answer, based on the NABC training manual) for bander certification on Wednesday evening. All day Thursday will be devoted to hands-on evaluation of various skills needed and used by banders (e.g., use of mist nets, removal of birds, handling of birds, removal of wrong-sized bands, skulling, etc.). Bander training workshop sessions will be going on simultaneously and will be open to all attendees. In the event of inclement weather, the field aspect of the certification process will be extended to Fri and/or Sat.

Ottumwa is located in southeast Iowa, on U.S. highways 34 and 63. Ottumwa is served by United Airlines via Chicago, but there are few flights coming into Ottumwa.
